WARREN COUNTY

A budget of $26,990 was accepted yesterday by the Northwestern Pennsylvania Regional Planning and Development Commission. The budget, which will come initially from a state grant, will cover expenses of the 56-member commission. Page One.

The Kinzua Dam Vacation Bureau announced yesterday approximately one-third of the $6,000 needed to erect American, French and British flags in Crescent Park has been pledged. The project was started to create a historical symbol for the area. Page One.

THE NATION

After three hours of procedural haggling and a lop-sided vote to defeat an amendment softening the language in the censure motion against Sen. Thomas J. Dodd, an obviously angry Senate Majority Leader, Mike Mansfield, moved for a recess and then stalked out of the chamber without waiting for a vote on his motion. The Senate thus delayed for at least another day the vote on the substance of the censure resolution against the Connecticut senator.

By a slim vote of 4 to 3, the Federal Communications Commission reaffirmed its controversial order of last December permitting the merger of the International Telephone and Telegraph Company and the American Broadcasting Company.

Secretary of Defense McNamara called a news conference at the Pentagon to announce that all segregated housing near Andrews Air Force Base in Maryland was off limits for military personnel. The order was believed to be the first in a series of drastic federal moves to eliminate housing discrimination against Negro servicemen.

THE WORLD

President Johnson and Soviet Premier Kosygin will meet for lunch and several hours of talks today at the home of a college president in Glassboro, N. J., about 15 miles south of Philadelphia. No agenda for the meeting was set, but certainly the men can be expected to talk about the Middle East, Southeast Asia, and the treaty to prevent the spread of nuclear weapons. Page One.

Delegates continued their speeches about the war in the Middle East. The French foreign minister, Maurice Couve de Murville, belittled Israel's proposal to negotiate individually with each Arab state.

It was announced that the United States has agreed to provide indirect economic assistance to help Israel recover from the war by selling nearly $30-million in agricultural commodities.

One other aspect of the Middle Eastern war—the status of the city of Jerusalem—was also under discussion at the United Nations. Israel was said to be negotiating with churches interested in holy places on ecumenical agreements for free access to the sacred places for Christians and Moslems in the Old City.

SPORTS

Warren Auto Clinic and Warren Beverage posted triumphs in City Softball League action last night, setting up a Monday night showdown between the two loop leaders. In the Rec. League, City Ice & Beverage whipped Mineral Well to move into a tie for second with the Mets, Twin Drive In stopped Towne & Country and Surf Club fell to Sparkle Car Wash. Page A6.

The Warren Beverage Baseball Club meets Ferraro Ford at Erie tonight, with the first half leadership in the Glenwood League riding on the outcome. Page A6.

Wayne Yates, an unheralded pro from Atlanta, put together rounds of 34-32 for a four-under-par 66 to take the first day lead at the Cleveland Open. Tied one stroke back are Arnold Palmer, Dan Sikes and Dick Lotz. Page A7.

KOSYGIN AT U. N. MEETING

Soviet Premier Alexei Kosygin, scheduled to meet today with President Johnson, fidgets as he sits through a U.N. General Assembly session. He arrived late at the session, earlier this week, missed speeches by Secretary Gen. U Thant and U.S. Ambassador Arthur Goldberg, and left before the meeting adjourned.

$1,800 is Raised Toward Three Flags Project's Goal

Members of Kinzua Dam Vacation Bureau learned yesterday that $1,800 has been pledged toward a goal of $6,000, the amount needed to erect American, French and English flags in Crescent Park.

The report was made by Kenneth Stratton, who said that local service and fraternal organizations are being asked to support the project, which will create a historical symbol for the area.

It is planned to fly the flags for six or seven month periods each year, day and night. Spotlights will illuminate the display during the night-time hours.

A plaque listing the sponsors of the project would also be erected, Stratton said.

LeRoy Schneek reported on the survey of restaurants and tourist accommodations now underway. His committee plans to print a small folder listing camp grounds, both governmental and private, which can be distributed to tourists visiting the area this summer.

The committee also heard a report from a delegation which recently visited the University of North Carolina to further study the feasibility of establishing an outdoor historical drama in Warren County. The trip was made by Henry LeMour, Ken Stratton, Robert Peterson and Charles Tranter.

Michael Mead reported on new developments in highway planning for the area and the Bureau voted to endorse the plans for a new highway connecting Route 62 with Hatch Run, Scandia and Hemlock and across the river to connect with Route 59.

The plans were developed by Warren County Planning office and are part of a six-year development program.

Steering committee chairman Robert Dilks said that 40,000 of the new Kinzua Dam brochures have been distributed since the printing last March.

He also said the committee is searching for appropriate office headquarters for the future.

Charge Gertsch With Assault And Battery

James F. Gertsch, 23, of 1201 Pennsylvania ave. W., was charged with assault and battery yesterday in connection with an alleged attack on a woman two weeks ago near the G. C. Greene plant on Pennsylvania ave.

Mrs. Robert Jackie Franklin, 1406 Pennsylvania ave. W., told police she was assaulted the night of June 8 and identified Gertsch as the assailant.

Police said the investigation was prolonged until a positive identification could be made.

LBJ, Kosygin Meet Today

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson and Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kosygin will hold a historic summit meeting today in the small town of Glassboro, N.J., about halfway between New York and Washington.

The White House made the announcement last night, ending a week of speculation and several days of behind-the-scenes negotiations between representatives of the two governments.

White House sources said Johnson and Kosygin would discuss substantive matters—that it would not be simply a courtesy meeting.

It is understood that Johnson plans to raise such issues as the Middle East, Southeast Asia and Vietnam, prospects for a nuclear nonproliferation treaty and a possible agreement with the Soviets to limit a race to ring the two nations with anti-ballistic missiles.

Press secretary George Christian said Johnson invited Kosygin to meet with him at 11 a.m. EDT today at the home of Thomas Robinson, president of Glassboro State College. The school has an enrollment of about 5,000 and the community—located 15 miles south of Philadelphia—has a population of about 10,000.

The fact that Glassboro could be considered something of a midway point between New York and Washington apparently figured heavily in the success of efforts to get the two world leaders together. Originally Johnson had wanted to see Kosygin at the White House or nearby. The Soviet premier thought Johnson should visit him in New York.

Johnson and Kosygin are expected to be together for at least a couple of hours and have lunch together.

White House sources said final arrangements for the summit were concluded about 6 p.m. EDT yesterday. They said Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Kosygin laid the groundwork for the agreement at a meeting earlier in the day in New York.

Kosygin plans to drive to Glassboro from New York. Johnson will fly to Philadelphia International Airport and, probably, proceed from there to Glassboro by helicopter.

Johnson is scheduled to address a Democratic fundraising dinner in Los Angeles tonight. It was understood he would return to Washington before proceeding to California.

Christian's announcement featured the fact that Johnson initiated the invitation to Kosygin and the latter accepted.

Apparently as a result of the Kosygin-Rusk talk, Johnson placed a call yesterday afternoon to Democratic Gov. Richard J. Hughes of New Jersey—seeking suggestions for a meeting site. Christian said Hughes made the Glassboro site available.

The meeting will be the first between the top U.S. and Soviet leaders since President John F. Kennedy and Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev met in Vienna in 1961.

Dodd's Censure is Still before Senate

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate rejected yesterday a second attempt to block the censure of Sen. Thomas J. Dodd, then recessed in angry turmoil without acting on the misconduct charges against the Connecticut Democrat.

After two hours of confusion and parliamentary bickering, the Senate quit work amid shouts of protest. It will take up the Dodd case once more at noon today.

The sole vote during what was heralded as the climactic session of the eight-day debate turned down an amendment which would have sought only to reprimand, instead of censure, on the charge that Dodd used political money for his personal purposes.

That was proposed by Sen. John Tower, R-Tex. It was rejected, 87 to 9. It was another modification, the second in two days, that the Senate is likely, in the end, to impose a judgment of censure.

The Tower move to ease Dodd's punishment paralleled the futile effort of Sen. Russell B. Long, D-La., to diminish the penalty to a mere admonition. That proposal was rejected Wednesday, 92 to 2. Dodd left the chamber on both votes, saying he did not wish to embarrass anyone.

Tower said his amendment would permit the Senate to express disapproval without invoking "one of the most severe penalties you can impose on a man," the censure of his colleagues.

The last-minute move was a surprise because Tower had not previously come to the defense of the embattled Dodd.

Area Planners Vote on Budget

FRANKLIN — Delegates of the Northwestern Pennsylvania Regional Planning and Development Commission meeting in Franklin Wednesday afternoon voted unanimously to accept the $26,990 initial budget proposed by the 13-member executive committee.

The budgeted money will come from a state grant initially expected prior to July 1 and the new fiscal year, but according to word received from the state attorney general the funds will be delayed.

The budget will cover expenses of the 56-member commission through the first phase of their operation namely the establishment of priority criteria for the eight member counties.

A break-down of the budget is as follows:

The salary of a coordinator, yet to be found—$10,500 to $13,500.

Salary of a secretary—$3,300 to $4,200.

Office—$1,200 to $1,690.

Equipment—$2,000.

Supplies—$2,000.

Consultant—$3,600.

A second part of the joint resolution listed five priority problem areas that must be dealt with the utmost speed. These five items were not listed by number because of the interrelating ties.

They are: air and water pollution, tourist promotion, industrial development, agency, education and retraining, and air and ground transportation.

A suggestion of the executive council to establish regional headquarters in Oil City was not acted upon at the meeting, because according to Lewis L. Crippen, president, Warren County, the committee was not given the task of selecting a site for the office at this time and that this decision would have to be delayed until later.

Oil City was suggested as a site to the committee for the regional office because of its central location.

Attending the session from Warren County were Crippen, D.H. Lay, county commissioners; Catherine M. Christy, Warren County Development Association and Joseph F. McAmbley, president, WCDA.

Teachers' Retirement Bill Passed

HARRISBURG (AP) — The House unanimously passed a bill to liberalize retirement benefits for teachers and other public school employees yesterday.

The proposal, approved earlier by the Senate, was based on recommendations of the Pennsylvania State Education Association, which said benefits would be increased by one-sixth.

Under the bill, school employees would be eligible to retire at half salary at age 60 if they had 30 years of service. At present, they need 35.

In addition, contributions to the retirement fund would be based on a flat 5 1/2 per cent of salary rather than a conditional rate based on age and sex, which now ranges up to 8 per cent. Contributions by the state and school districts would be increased slightly.

A PSEA spokesman said more than 100,000 teachers and other school employees would be affected by the legislation, which he said also provided for improved disability, early retirement and death benefits.

It was testified by a House source that the liberalized payments would cost the state approximately $1.2 million a year.

Bill Delays Sewage Act's Effective Date

The State House of Representatives yesterday passed a bill to extend the effective date of the 1966 Sewage Facilities Act from July 1 to Sept. 1, giving municipalities more time to construct the facilities mandated under the act.

The Summit Meeting is Where?

(c) N.Y. Times News Service

GLASSBORO, N.J.—Word of the historic meeting between President Johnson and Soviet Premier Alexei Kosygin hit this little community like a thunderclap last night.

While the residents of this borough were wondering why it had been chosen for the meeting, the area was hit by a brief power failure that added to their bewilderment.

"I wonder why here," said Michael Kelly, a drama professor at Glassboro State College, where the meeting will take place today.

"Why did they have to pick on us?" asked Mrs. Betty Durney, a borough official. "I wish it had been some place else. There could be a lot of trouble."

"We can't understand why they're meeting here," said Sgt. George Conte of the New Jersey state police. "It's just a little farm town." The state police were notified of the meeting at 6:15 last night.

Only a few hours earlier the mayor of Glassboro, Joseph Bowe, 50, had died. The acting mayor is councilman John Wilson.

Within minutes after the meeting was announced, Glassboro was flooded with calls from all over the world. Telephone service broke down for a time because circuits to the area were overloaded.

Glassboro is a borough of 11,000 in Gloucester County, N.J., 115 miles from Washington and 98 miles from New York. The town is described in guide books as "a business-like farm center displaying well-kept streets, neat one-family dwellings and a prosperous looking business center with bright store fronts." It has a 16-man police force.

Preparations began immediately after the meeting was announced. The New Jersey Bell Telephone Co., called all 42 of its employees in the area to work last night in an attempt to open as many lines of communication as possible.

"We're making arrangements for all the people we can lay our hands on," said traffic manager Joseph Scatagood. He explained that Glassboro was a switching office that had no telephone operators of its own.

Facilities for the large entourage that will accompany Johnson and Kosygin will be limited in Glassboro. There is one small hotel and another in Pitman, an adjoining community.

Garrison

amine all allegations made against the Orleans parish district attorney's office.

Gremillion was reported by his office to be "somewhere in North Louisiana" and he could not be reached for comment. Garrison immediately challenged Aaron M. Kohn, managing director of the crime commission, to place his charges before the Orleans Parish (county) Grand Jury. Garrison said he would ask the jury foreman to call Kohn, who along with E. C. Upton Jr., crime commission president, signed the letter sent to Gremillion.

Garrison said, "Naturally I feel sorry for Mr. Kohn. The watchdog of the community has been sniffing at so many bad fire hydrants that his nose has finally gone bad on him."

The crime commission's letter cited allegations made by several persons during the National Broadcasting Company's documentary "The J.F.K. Conspiracy; The Case of Jim Garrison" last Monday in which they were "pressured by Garrison's office to give false testimony."

"Implications of the allegations made against Garrison and his staff now reach far beyond the assassination probe," said the crime commission. "They raise justifiable doubts about handling by that office of the hundreds of cases each year in which persons are charged with crimes against the state.

"If accusations broadcast throughout the nation on Monday night are true, the people of New Orleans are without basis for confidence that the laws of this state will be applied so as to convict the guilty and exonerate the innocent. On the contrary, there is reason for fear that anyone may be charged and prosecuted based upon contrived false evidence,"

Plan Access to Jerusalem Shrines

BY JUAN DE ONIS

(C) N.Y. Times News Service UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. — Israel is negotiating with world leaders agreement to provide access to the holy places of Jerusalem for Christians, Moslems, and Jews, it was learned yesterday.

Under the Israeli plan, the churches, mosques and the shrines of Jerusalem seized during the fighting with Jordan would be placed under a special statute. These main guarantees would be made:

- Autonomous administration. Each church group would administer its own places of worship.
- Protection and maintenance. The holy places would be protected and kept up under an agreement with local authorities, but the supervision would be by the church group involved.
- Freedom of access. Worshippers and pilgrims would be

Charge Israelis Raze Town

By TERENCE SMITH

(C) N.Y. Times News Service TEL AVIV — Israeli army officials acknowledged yesterday that 40 per cent of the buildings in the Jordanian town of Kalkilya had been destroyed, but they insisted that the damage was done by shelling during the war.

On Wednesday, the Jordanian foreign minister charged Israel was destroying the homes in Kalkilya with bulldozers and evacuating the inhabitants by force.

The Jordanians contend that for the last two weeks the Israelis have methodically blown up the homes in the town and forcibly evicted the entire population of 15,000 persons.

An Israeli army spokesman denied the allegations. At the same time, he said that the town had been heavily damaged by the fighting there on June 6 and 7.

Requests for foreign newsmen for permission to visit Kalkilya yesterday were refused. As the town lies within Israeli-occupied Jordan, the routes to the town are sealed by military guards. No reason was given for the refusal.

ABC-ITT Merger Approved by FCC

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Federal Communications Commission approved yesterday the biggest merger in broadcasting history, permitting International Telephone and Telegraph Corp. to take over American Broadcasting Companies, Inc. FCC approval was by a 4-3 vote, the same lineup as when the commission approved the $2.8-billion merger the first time, last Dec. 21. The commission acted then after a limited hearing which the Justice Department contended did not take up possible antitrust aspects of the merger.

The FCC delayed the merger early this year to give the Justice Department an opportunity to present its case in opposition.

There was no immediate indication whether the department will appeal the FCC decision in the courts.

The merger requires FCC approval because the broadcasting network owns radio and television stations subject to FCC control.

In a 41-page opinion, the FCC said the merger will aid ABC considerably by putting the wealth of TTT at the network's disposal.

"We have found that ABC will be significantly aided by having TTT's financial strength back of it, both in its competition with its network rivals and in its efforts to better serve the public interest through entertainment innovations, news and public affairs expansion," the commission said.

Leonard H. Goldenson, president of ABC, said consummation of the merger will enable the network to carry out extensive expansion plans, especially toward full-color production. He also listed the addition of more UHF television station affiliations and purchases.

County Attorney Opposes Chautauqua's Tax Status

JAMESTOWN, N.Y. — No decision has yet been rendered by Supreme Court Judge Arthur Cosgrove on whether Chautauqua Institution should be exempt from taxes on property assessed at $618,000. Representing Chautauqua Institution at a court appearance in Buffalo were Jamestown attorneys Charles H. Price and Ernest D. Leet. The attorneys asked for a ruling exempting the institution as a non-profit institution.

Seymour Rollman, Chautauqua County attorney and Gene De Mambro, attorney for the town of Chautauqua, appeared to oppose the institution's request for exemption status. Rollman said Chautauqua Institution is not devoted exclusively to cultural, educational and religious purposes as maintained in the institution's plea.

Jamestown Fair Is a Success

JAMESTOWN, N.Y. — Clearing weather yesterday afternoon and evening provided a successful climax to the annual Hospital Fair at Jamestown General Hospital. The fair is sponsored by the women's auxiliary at the hospital to help raise funds for the operation of the local hospital.

The clearing weather came after a violent storm on Wednesday flattened tents and booths which had been set up on the hospital grounds.

It was announced last night by officials of the auxiliary that the daylong festivities attracted more than 8,000 persons. The chicken barbecue last night, one of the fair's main attractions, drew over 1,200 persons.

The driver, Edna A. Byers, 48, R.D. 1, Tionesta, suffered lacerations and multiple bruises. Her nine-month-old granddaughter, Jody Lee Morrison, suffered abrasions of the head and Thomas McWilliams, 77, R.D. 1, Tionesta, received shoulder injuries. A third passenger, Pamela Byers, 13, was treated for abrasions of the legs and released.

State police at Tionesta said the vehicle was traveling west on the highway when the left rear wheel fell off and the car traveled across the road and plunged down an embankment.

Accept RCA Offer

CAMDEN, N. J. (AP)—Members of Local 103, International Union of Electrical Workers, AFL-CIO, overwhelmingly voted Thursday to accept the latest offer of the Radio Corporation of America.

The 3,608-1,699 vote in the union's largest local, averted the possibility of a nation-wide strike against RCA. Ten other locals have voted to accept the offer.

Vote on Tax Bills Planned for Today

HARRISBURG (AP) — The House Republican caucus sounded the death knell yesterday for a proposed $24 million soft drink tax, as the GOP leadership moved toward a showdown on the remainder of Gov. Shafer's $267 million tax package.

"The plans right now are to move all the bills Friday except the soft drink tax," House Speaker Kenneth B. Lee said after the House had adjourned until 10 a.m. today.

"The members of the caucus requested the leadership and the administration to hold up on the soft drink tax to determine if the budget can be reduced even further," he continued.

"The members were absolutely adamant that another attempt be made to cut the budget again."

The 12 tax proposals drawn to balance Shafer's proposed $1.791 billion budget, the soft drink levy ran into the stiffest caucus opposition.

Lee acknowledged that the leadership, after caucusing most of the day, still was shy 100 Republican votes, but he termed himself "quite optimistic" that the remainder of the package could pass "even though we obviously need Democratic votes."

The Democratic House Minority Leader would admit to a maximum two possible defections, although this would be just enough to pass the taxes if they held down the line.

Lee and Shafer had been advised of the development and has agreed to do all in his power to come up with some cuts.

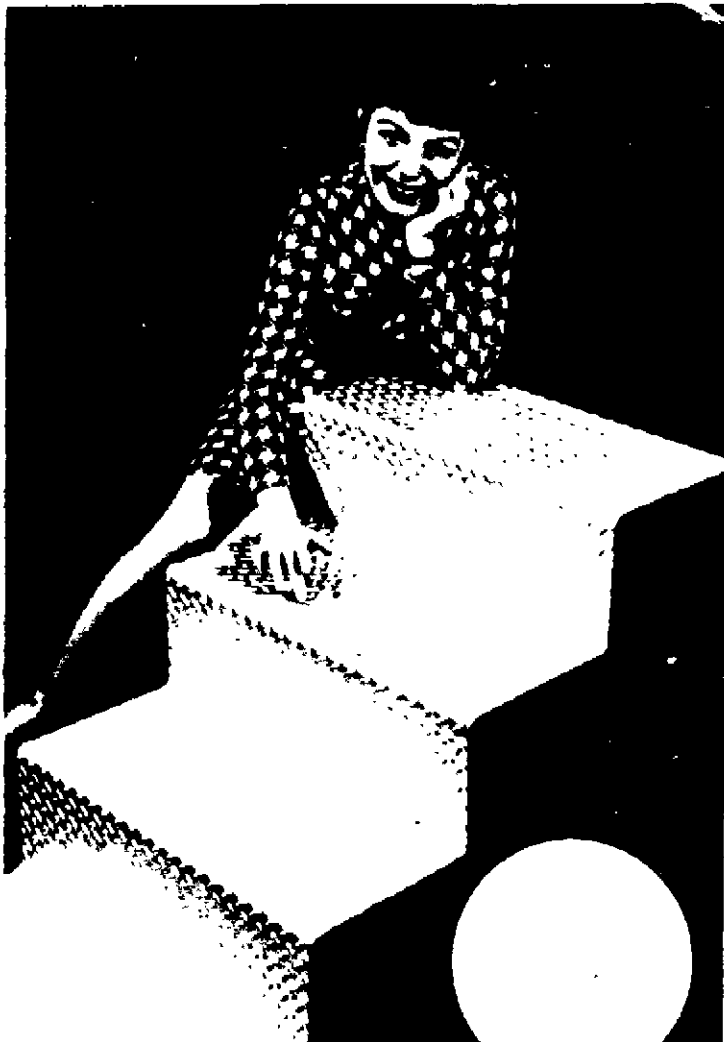

The governor had no comment on the action.

Shafer had been pressing the House and Senate Republican leadership to clear both his record-high budget and his tax program by the beginning of the fiscal year, July 1.

Yesterday's caucus action almost certainly signaled the end to that hope.

Senate Republicans earlier in the week had introduced $244.2 million in stop-gap appropriations in anticipation of just such a deadlock.

The Senate, in its only action advanced the two bills—$200 million general government operations and $44.2 million in public assistance funds—into position for a final vote Monday before adjourning for the week.

Election Reform Sought by Truax

HARRISBURG (AP) — Craig Truax, whose Department of State supervises the election machinery in Pennsylvania, contends that "we are making things too difficult for people to vote."

He said as much in testimony yesterday before a House committee conducting hearings on proposed revision of the Election Code.

"I feel that basically the only regulations that are required should be to provide for an orderly election process and guard against fraud," Truax told the lawmakers.

The committee has been conducting hearings in selected areas around the state, and yesterday's session concluded the series.

Truax suggested that the legislature give particular attention to the election laws as they relate to absentee ballots, registration, and reporting of campaign expenditures.

Truax, like others who have appeared before the committee, advocated that absentee ballots be counted the same day as the regular voting.

"We have a built-in problem by requiring absentee ballots to be counted 10 days after the election," he said, "it has the Harriet Fleckenstein won first prize in a competition among the various departments at Levinson Brothers for her decorations in the sportswear department. Her prize? Strawberries, naturally.

Bus Service is Back to Normal

NEW YORK (AP)—Greyhound Bus Co. service in and out of Montreal, Albany, N.Y., and New York City returned to normal yesterday after striking drivers ended their one-day wildcat walkout.

The strike was called off by Daniel Aiello, president of Local 1202 of the Amalgamated Transit Union. Aiello called the strike without authorization from the parent union or the union's eastern council and was suspended for his action.

He gave no reason for stopping the walkout, although after his suspension the parent union instructed the striking drivers to return to work.

VIETNAM MONSOONS BEGIN

Ground Action Picking Up

By BERNARD WEINRAUB (c) N. Y. Times News Service

SAIGON—United States infantrymen and Air Force pilots struck hard at enemy positions in the Central Highlands and lowlands, a military spokesman announced yesterday.

In one clash, two companies of infantrymen were carried by helicopter into a combat assault on Viet Cong positions in the coastal flatlands of Quangnai Province, about 350 miles northeast of Saigon.

As the enemy sought to flee, the infantrymen, with armed helicopter support, opened fire and killed 70 of the Viet Cong. A military spokesman said there were no American casualties.

The action, led by the Third Brigade task force of the 25th Infantry, took place eight miles southeast of Quangnai City and 12 miles north of Ducpho in an area where a major Communist offensive is expected with the monsoon season which has just begun.

For the past few days, Quangnai Province as well as nearby provinces in Central Vietnam have been the setting for increased enemy activity. Early Wednesday a paratrooper unit 14 miles south of Quangnai City was attacked with 12 rounds of 60 mm. mortar fire. Eleven paratroopers were wounded.

In Binh Dinh Province, which adjoins Quangnai to the south, infantrymen of the Second Brigade, First Cavalry Division, fought an all-day battle six miles southwest of Phumy. A military spokesman said that six soldiers were killed and 22 wounded. A total of 80 enemy troops were killed.

With the infantry war in the north picking up, the tempo of naval gunfire and air strikes are increasing in the area. A barrage of rockets from the U.S.S. White River destroyed 25 enemy emplacements and damaged ten others in an area 16 miles south-southeast of Quangnai City.

Further to the north Air Force Strategic Air Command Stratofortresses hit enemy fortified areas and trails 30 miles west-southwest of Hue in Thauathien Province.

Further south, troops of the 25th Infantry Division's second brigade fought two heavy firefights west-southwest of Duchoa on the Oriental River in Longan Province. A spokesman said that 20 of the enemy were killed and that there were no U.S. casualties.

In the air war, U.S. pilots struck hard at railroad networks, communications lines and industrial areas north and south of Hanoi. The bombing ranged from targets 45 miles north of Hanoi to the southern panhandle, which extends from the city of Vinh, 150 miles south of Hanoi, to the Demilitarized Zone.

Among the targets of the U.S.

pilots was the Thainguyen iron and steel industrial complex, 38 miles north of Hanoi. It was the 18th time since bombing of the north began in August, 1964, that the big iron and steel complex was bombed.

During the raids, a spokesman said, an Air Force RF-101 reconnaissance plane was shot down but the pilot was rescued. In Saigon, casualty figures for last week—a relatively quiet week in the war—were issued by the U.S. military command. From June 4 to June 11, a spokesman said, a total of 143 Americans were killed and 953 wounded. In the previous week, 176 Americans were killed and 928 wounded.

French Diplomat Raises Viet Issue

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—Amid groping by U.N. diplomats for a compromise on assembly recommendations to Israel and the Arabs, France declared yesterday that as long as the war in Vietnam continues, there is no chance for real peace in the Middle East.

In a policy speech to the emergency special session of the 122-nation General Assembly, Maurice Couve de Murville,

France Urges Withdrawal of Israeli Force

(c) N. Y. Times News Service

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. — France's foreign minister yesterday deplored Israel's plan to negotiate individually with each Arab state without defining her peace terms. He noted that the terms appeared to go far beyond freedom of navigation in the Gulf of Aqaba.

He also warned that if Israel persisted in her occupation of parts of the United Arab Republic, Syria and Jordan, the ceasefire might be troubled by "incessant and dangerous incidents."

France thus joined the increasing number of delegations urging, advising or demanding that Israeli forces be withdrawn from Arab territory.

Arrest Nine Negroes Said To be Leftists

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Police said yesterday they have taken into custody eight more persons identified as members of the Revolutionary Action Movement (RAM), an extremist Negro group allegedly bent on assassinating moderate civil rights leaders. The arrests followed two separate police raids on reputed RAM headquarters.

In addition, police arrested Maxwell Stanford, 33, described by the FBI as the national leader of RAM. Police said Stanford was arrested in the raid, which turned up eight cartons of books and pamphlets from Red China, Russia and other Communist nations along with a rifle, pistol and ammunition.

Police said four more young Negroes were taken into custody yesterday following a raid on a home in West Philadelphia which contained a dozen cartons of similar literature.

Asst. Dist. Atty. William Wolf described it as "revolutionary type material" advocating civil war and the violent overthrow of the government.

Oilmen Cautioned

BRADFORD, Pa. (AP)—Pennsylvania's oil industry was warned yesterday to voluntarily fight air and water pollution or find itself faced with mandatory legislation.

Dr. H. Beecher Charnbury, state Secretary of Mines and Mines Industries, cited to about 180 oil producers and refiners state anti-pollution laws clamped on the coal industry.

"It is likely that the oil industry will be the next target of those fighting against pollution in the air, in the water, and on the land," Charnbury said.

He said the coal industry tried to ignore the pollution problem created by mine acid drainage and was put under tight controls with the 1963 strip mine legislation for its failure to act.

stir up racial riots was rushed through a House Judiciary subcommittee yesterday and promptly endorsed by Speaker John W. McCormack, D-Mass.

The bill, which also includes a provision to protect Negroes against interference with their civil rights, would make it a federal crime punishable by up to five years in jail to cross a state boundary to "incite, organize, promote or encourage" a riot.

Prompt action by the full committee and the House is expected.

Pressure for enactment of antiriot legislation has been mounting in Congress as violence in Tampa, Dayton, Boston, Cincinnati and other cities has borne out the warning of civil rights militants that "A long, hot summer" is in prospect.

The Judiciary Committee chairman, Rep. Emanuel Celler, D-N.Y., pushed the bill through his subcommittee in one brief session after its supporters had threatened to take it to the floor by another route.

Celler succeeded in tying to it a provision from last year's civil rights bill that would protect Negroes against threats or force when they are lawfully engaged in such activities as voting, attending public schools, using public accommodations, or other activity protected by law.

—Police their own industry.

—Advance research into the causes and cures of pollution.

County Faced With Dilemma

With the untimely death of the Hon. William C. Fuellhart last Saturday morning, Warren County is faced with somewhat of a dilemma. We are without representation in the state House of Representatives.

The procedure for filling a vacancy in the General Assembly is spelled out in Article II, Sec. 2 of the state constitution.

Whenever a vacancy occurs in either House, the presiding officer, in this instance, the Hon. Lee Donaldson, speaker of the House, shall issue a writ of election (special) to fill such a vacancy for the remainder of the term.

With few exceptions, however, the special election can be set to run concurrently with the general election in the fall. If the speaker does issue the writ for special election, it is usually done after the traditional 30-day period of mourning. The county involved then usually requires between 45 and 60 days to set up the mechanics for such an election.

The Republican county committee has the power to elect its nominee within the committee while Democrats must gain approval of their State Committee before naming their nominee.

The situation in Warren County upon the death of Rep. Allen M. Gibson was somewhat different. Mr. Gibson had won the GOP primary election to serve until another term in the House of Representatives but died prior to the general election. The Republican county committee convened to approve placing the name of Joseph H. Goldstein on the fall ballot and the Democrats already had a candidate.

As to whom the GOPsters favor, this is still strictly a matter of sheer speculation. Many names may be mentioned as possibilities but it's up to the county committee to pick a qualified person for the important post.

MASON DENISON

$47 Million or $267 Million

HARRISBURG — Reporter's Notebook:

WHAT NEXT-DEPARTMENT — Just how ludicrous and cloudy Pennsylvania's ailing fiscal picture has become was illustrated this week when House Democratic Floor Leader Herbert Fineman allowed as how Pennsylvania really only needs $47 million in additional tax monies—not the $267 million projected by Governor Shafer.

Democratic spokesman Fineman proposed the titillating thought that Mr. Shafer has "over-estimated" his budgetary fiscal needs for the new fiscal year starting July 1 by some $220 million! Had the State will be paying the taxpayers!"

It isn't quite that simple however. The point that is of interest is that Governor Shafer was able to pare some $70 million himself from his projected of near $300 million needed in new tax monies from his original ("lean") budgetary document, to bring the figure down to his current $267 million.

Interestingly, Mr. Fineman spelled out precisely how he arrived at the drastically reduced $47 million figure which—irritatingly to the Shafer Administration—made sense to many.

Another interesting sidenote: Legislative Democrats over the years have managed rather well to come up with drastic budgetary cut proposals when Republicans have been in the gubernatorial suite—but their record isn't too impressive when they had their own Governor in the gubernatorial henhouse?

RED FACE IN THE SUNSET — A few months ago one of the younger pundits on Capitol Hill was predicting speedy passage (of all things) of a proposed new Penal Code for Pennsylvania, complete with eulogies of how "outstanding" the new code would be. It looked good on paper.

Then the professionals—judges, lawyers, law enforcement agencies—who must work with any such new code and who are far more conversant with the legal aspects than any pundit pointed out the glaring and obvious inadequacies and incompatibilities of the proposed document.

This week the document was conceded to be pretty much of a dead duck for this session, as veteran observers originally expected, inasmuch as you don't rewrite such a critical document as the Penal Code at one sitting. In fact the Penal Code rewrite has been in the works, unsuccessfully, for nearly the past quarter-century!

PREPARING FOR THE WORST — When House Democratic Leader Herbert Fineman sent out his usual weekly letter to members of his legislative bloc giving them some idea of what to expect on the legislative front during the upcoming week (in this case this week) he projected a possible five-day session on the premise the Shafer Administration tax program would start to move.

Referring to this five-day possibility, the venerable floor leader from the happy city of Philadelphia offered this thoughtful "PS" to his constituents:

"Bring enough shaving soap and toilet water to last."

"Publicity Draws Blood In Altoona."

RUSSELL BAKER

Hints For The U.N.

(c) N. Y. Times News Service
NEW YORK — Watching the United Nations on television, where it now threatens to outrun Ed Sullivan, reveals the number of very serious flaws in its way of doing business. One of these is letting itself appear on television.

The United States Senate, which bears a structural resemblance to the U. N., foresaw years ago that television cameras could be the end of it and, consequently, never let them in. If the U. N. is ever to amount to anything, it will have to begin by throwing the cameras out.

Baker

TV cameras in any political gathering is their siren call to the ham in every public figure. Under the hypnosis of the red eye, speeches that can be delivered in 10 minutes expand to 110. Modest points of order are inflated to the passion of Marc Antony's funeral oration. Men with nothing at all to say feel compelled to say it anyhow, usually at great length, and then to say it again and again.

In New York, all these vices have been indulged to the point of orgy since the U. S. first— it seems years ago — took up the Middle East on television. Ambassador Baroudy of Saudi Arabia has made more appearances on camera in this period than Zsa Zsa Gabor. Speeches of the Arabs, Israelis, Russians and Americans have already been repeated and repeated until the audience knows them by instinct, just as instinctively knows the lines for next week's "Gunsmoke."

"I want you out of this town by sundown, Carson," "You just try and put me out, marshal," "Extremist belligerent circles in Tel Aviv..."

The Senate is much more canny about all this. It operates on the sensible theory that nothing very constructive can be done by people performing for television. Hence the cameras are banned.

The Senate also operates on the equally sensible assumption that nothing very constructive can be done while the people who have to do it are listening to a speech. This is why visitors to the Senate chamber see so few senators.

The senator who wants to make a speech is customarily left to make it to himself, thus freeing his colleagues to retire to small rooms and get down to work. The next day, anyone who wants to know what he said can read it over breakfast in the Congressional Record.

Not at the U. N. There, the members sit for hours on end listening to speeches until their brains boil. Why? It cannot be because there is no work to be done. Perhaps it is because they hope to be seen on television.

The Senate has also learned the value of keeping heads of state from taking part in its activities. It learned long ago that presidents rarely have anything so eloquent to say that it cannot be said satisfactorily by mail. When a President has something to say to the Senate, he is forced to send a message, which a senator can read at his leisure, or, if he pleases, throw away after scanning the first few paragraphs.

Such practice would save a great deal of time for the U. N. Moreover, it would save the time and energy of important men like Premier Kosygin. Instead of coming all the way from Moscow to deliver one more rehash of what his agents have been saying for days, Kosygin could mail the U. N. a mimeographed copy and spend the rest of the week working with his Middle East experts.

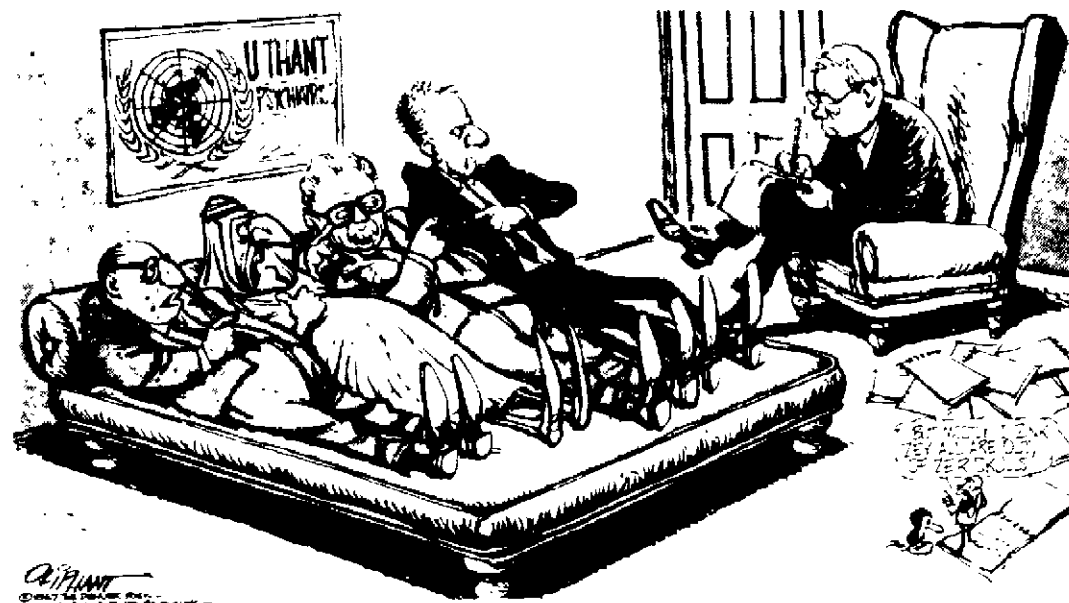

Barring heads of state from personal appearances would be an act of mercy not only to the U. N. delegates but also to heads of state.

Another strength of the Senate which the U. N. might usefully adopt is the rule that members may talk about anything they please. In the Senate, when everybody is tired of hearing about the big butter and egg bill, a member may stand up and talk about the boll weevil, Mars, the flowers in the prairie or the high cost of plumbing.

What a boon this rule would be to the U. N. — and, incidentally, to its television audience — in its present agony. One morning, turning on the tube, we might find that great organization of man's noblest dreams utterly speechless about the Middle East but firmly at grips with the Vietnam war, Communist China, starvation in India and the defusing of bombs.

Well, not really at grips. We all know that the U. N. is not permitted to come to grips with anything vital to the superpowers. That, of course, is another weakness which the Senate would never tolerate.

The U. S. Weather Bureau was authorized by an act of Congress on Feb. 9, 1870. The act assigned meteorological duties to the Signal Corps of the War Department.

PEARSON & ANDERSON

U.S. Should Prevent Wars

WASHINGTON — The pellmell victory of the Israeli army has confounded the U. N. diplomats, but it may have set one important pattern for peace.

The Israelis have indicated that they would be willing to make the city of Jerusalem, so sacred to the Christian, Jewish and Moslem worlds, an open city. Already the Israeli minister of religion has put a committee of Moslems in charge of the Great Rock, sacred to the Moslem faith, and a committee of Christians in charge of the Holy Sepulcher, where Christ was buried.

If, in cooperation with the Vatican, the Protestant churches and the Moslem faith, and under the eye of the United Nations, Jerusalem is now made an open city, it would serve as a precedent for peace throughout the world.

The next move would be to make other great and historic capitals open cities. Athens, the capital of Greece, is the cradle of democracy. Its great monuments must be preserved.

Rome, the capital of Italy, is also the sacred capital of the Roman Catholic world, and the cradle of the republican form of government. It was an open city in World War II and must be made so in perpetuity.

Paris was also an open city in World War II. Its art, its architecture are among the great treasures of the world.

London was not an open city during World War II, but was subject to relentless bombing by Hitler. It must be protected in the future. Likewise Moscow, with the great art treasures of the Kremlin museums and the palaces of the czars, must be an open city.

Similarly, Washington should be declared immune from attack, as well as the capitals of Canada and Latin America.

If these cities are declared safe from attack, the world will have taken a long step toward the prevention of war. Ironically this will have happened through an act of war by the Israeli army. But it will also have sprung from the place where lived and preached the Man who tried to bring peace on earth, good will to men.

One trouble with the boiling Near East is that the United States has never shaped up an overall plan for peace. It has used fire brigade diplomacy. The State Department has rushed in to put out the fires, but has never rebuilt to clean out the fire hazards.

Here is a newspaperman's plan for peace in the Near East, which may seem idealistic. But something like this will have to be constructed if even more dangerous war is to be prevented.

1. Make the Suez Canal an international waterway and simultaneously adopt the Truman principle of internationalizing other vital waterways, including the Panama Canal, the Bosphorus, the Kiel Canal, the Danube and the Rhine.

2. Rebuild the old irrigation systems — the Tigris, the Euphrates and the Jordan Rivers which once made the Near East the breadbasket of that part of the world.

3. Dig a canal from the Mediterranean to the Dead Sea. The Dead Sea is about 1,296 feet below sea level, and the fall of water from the Mediterranean into the Dead Sea would generate enough power to industrialize southern Israel and neighboring Jordan.

4. Give Jordan a corridor to the Mediterranean. In 1948, after Israel first became a state, Mrs. Golda Meir held secret talks with King Abdullah of Jordan, grandfather of King Hussein. They planned to give Israel most of the Jordanian territory up to the west bank of the Jordan River, and in return Israel would give Jordan a corridor to the sea across the Negev Desert.

5. Solve the question of refugees. Ever since the independence of Israel, these refugee camps have been allowed to fester and grow into one of the chief detriments to good will in the Near East. Approximately one million idle people plotting the day when they will return to Israel by force of arms do not make for peace. It will take money from the West to solve the refugee problem, but the West has been putting up millions of dollars for refugee food every year, and it would be cheaper to solve the problem than continue the feeding.

6. Israel will have to change its attitude toward Israeli Arabs. There are more than a quarter of a million Arabs already living in Israel, and in recent years they have had the status of second-class citizens. If Israel gave the benefits of its citizenship to the Arabs living within its own boundaries, it would help soothe the rest of the Arab world.

The basic fact is that the Arabs need Israeli technical knowhow and the Israelis need the agricultural and oil resources of the Arab world. A Sand Curtain of hate and suspicion now separates them. It will take time but the Curtain can be lifted. It will take all the resourcefulness of Western leaders and all the patience of Near East leaders. But the lifting of this Curtain is the only solution for peace in the embattled and bloody Near East.

7. Under the Veterans Readjustment Benefits Act of 1965, veterans who have been at some time on active duty since 1955 are eligible for payments ranging from $100-$150 per month for full-time study at any accredited educational institution. This common academic year, about $45,000 are expected to benefit from the 1966 "Cold War G.I. Bill." Veterans should apply to their regional Veterans Administration offices.

8. Guaranteed Loans for Vocational students, authorized under the National Vocational Student Loan Insurance Act of 1965, are available to students of any age, with or without a high school diploma, from low or middle income families, as long as they are attending or accepted in a vocational, business, trade or technical school. The loans for vocational students, like the counterpart for middle-income college students under the 1965 Higher Education Act's loan program, are made by banks and other lending institutions, for up to $1,000 a year. The simple interest rate is 6 per cent, paid partly or fully by the federal government while a student is in school. The loans are repayable over a 3 to 6 year period after completion of the course, beginning 9-12 months after a student leaves school.

9. During the Civil War, the 23rd Ohio Volunteer Infantry Regiment included two future U.S. presidents — Colonel Rutherford B. Hayes and Sergeant William McKinley.

SILVIA PORTER

Student Loan-Grant Programs

Today, the cost of sending three children through a four-year public college or university averages nearly $23,000, and the cost of sending three children through a private college easily can cost more than $40,000.

These phenomenal sums, due to swell further in the years directly ahead, have led to an unprecedented stream of new federal programs to give financial assistance to students from both low and middle-income families.

Aside from the massive, much publicized program of federally-aided guaranteed loans for college students, aimed particularly at middle income families, here are the biggest federal scholarship and loan programs to help students today.

+The National Defense Student Loan program, under the National Defense Education Act of 1958, so far has allowed some 1,000,000 students to borrow more than $1 billion to attend college.

This program offers loans of up to $1,000 for each academic year to undergraduates attending college at least half time. Loans are made, by the colleges, on the basis of need alone, at interest rates of 3 per cent a year, paid by the student. Repayment can be extended over a 10-year period. If a student becomes a public or non-profit school teacher, repayment of up to half of the loan is cancelled and if he becomes a teacher in a designated "hardship" school, the rest of the loan is forgiven.

+Educational Opportunity Grants, of as much as $1,000 a year, authorized under the Higher Education Act of 1965, are reserved for extremely needy high school graduates who cannot otherwise afford to attend college. A total of 221,200 students will receive these outright federal scholarships during the 1967-68 school year. If a student needs additional funds he can also apply for a National Defense loan or a state or private scholarship.

+In the College-Work-Study program, under the Economic Opportunity Act of 1964, a college student can earn up to $45 a week or $180 a month at approved part-time jobs on or off campus — plus perhaps $600 during summer vacation, for a total of as much as $1,300 during the year. In the 1967-68 academic year, an estimated 207,500 students will be employed under this plan.

+Under the Veterans Readjustment Benefits Act of 1965, veterans who have been at some time on active duty since 1955 are eligible for payments ranging from $100-$150 per month for full-time study at any accredited educational institution. This common academic year, about $45,000 are expected to benefit from the 1966 "Cold War G.I. Bill." Veterans should apply to their regional Veterans Administration offices.

UNITED NATIONS — The art of lying, which owes so much to diplomacy, seems to be in a slump at the United Nations these days. It is not that the present delegates at the General Assembly have given up the practice, but somehow they have lost their cunning.

There is a kind of mental laziness about contemporary diplomacy, the subtle half-truth, perfected by the British and artfully surrounded by witty obscurities, contributed a great deal to the history of diplomatic deception, but modern deception does not deceive.

For example, the Russian argument that Israel mobilized on the Syrian frontier in mid-May is the biggest fish-story since Jonah and the whale. The Israeli government invited the Russians to check the facts for themselves, but they preferred the lie and refused to investigate.

The Arab invention that the Israeli air force won the war was at least an audacious fake, worthy of that authentic phony, Herr Dr. Goebbels, but it was such obvious trash that not even the Russians believed it.

Even President de Gaulle, whose elegant duplicity has done so much to perpetuate illusion at home and disunity abroad, seems to be losing his touch. "The war was started in Vietnam through American intervention," he says in his latest pronouncement, which falls far below his normal standard of superior fantasy.

This does not mean that lying is no longer an effective instrument of world politics. When distributed through a controlled press, radio and television, as in the Soviet and Arab worlds, it still fools a lot of people who have no access to anything except the official hokum, but in the wider arena of the general assembly it now seems pathetically feeble.

Even the most obvious five-fushers here have lost their zip. They used to rush up to the podium at the General Assembly and roar out their forgeries as if they actually believed them, but now they neither pretend nor expect conviction.

Maybe this is progress. At least the contemporary misrepresentations, while shameless, are more candid, but something else has happened that is not so good. A subtle change has come over the delegates in this emergency meeting of the assembly. They may be as full as bladders as their predecessors, but they are far more tolerant of falsehood and deceit than they were a few years ago. The big change is their present cynicism and moral indifference.

What the Soviet Union has done here is to encourage the Arab peoples to believe that they were the victims of a monstrous conspiracy, and that their hope now lies in rearmament and revenge. There has been scarcely a word about turning the earnings and energies of these staggering governments away from their dreams of conquest and empire into the long-delayed tasks of removing the hunger, disease and illiteracy of their peoples.

Delegate after delegate has gone to the rostrum and portrayed Israel as a nasty little Sparta threatening the destruction of all the Arab states from Morocco to the Himalayas, and calling on the U. N., which is supposed to be a center for harmonizing international relations, to condemn Israel for saving its life.

The evidence of Nasser's calculated plot to exterminate one of the member states of the U. N. lies plain on the table—down to the dated Egyptian battle plans. Yet most of the speeches have concentrated, not on condemnation of these plans but on calling on Israel to withdraw.

It is not hard to understand the mythomania of the Arabs. The truth of their spectacular defeat was obviously unbearable and had to be denied, concealed and distorted. But that is the past.

The devilish thing about the Soviet strategy here is its attempt to carry the disastrous Arab myths of the past into the future, to provoke the Arabs into thinking that they can rearm and do better in the next round with their hated enemy.

That at least, is the clear meaning of the words spoken here by Kosygin in the debate and the only hope is that may be this is a lie too, and that, behind the scenes, he is really urging the Arabs to adjust to the new realities.

Elect Red Cross Officers for Year

The 51st annual board meeting and the regular board meeting of the Warren chapter, American Red Cross, were held at the chapter house Monday. At the regular board meeting John M. Brown was elected chairman, to succeed Richard Curren. Brown was formerly first vice chairman. Other officers elected were Bernard L. Wingert, first vice chairman, Edward A. Ryberg, treasurer, David W. Harrington, assistant treasurer, and Mrs. E.G. Hamilton, secretary.

Re-elected to the Board were James Marshall, Edward A. Ryberg, Paul Steinkamp, William Walker, Dr. J. Blair Logan, Robert Phillips, John M. Brown, Mrs. T.L. Armstrong, and Bernard L. Wingert. Newly elected was B.S. Knabenshue.

The following reports were presented at the annual board meeting:

The first aid program had a successful year, with 240 certificates being presented to area people.

Water safety issued 149 certificates.

The Junior Red Cross was quite active during the year with various projects for local charity and service groups.

The Blood Bank called upon Warren County people 11 times for blood donations. 1,620 donors—not all were accepted—responded for a total of 1,466 pints of blood. This was 17 pints short of the 1,482 pint quota. The next Blood Bank visit will be Wednesday, July 26. It is a split visit at both Warren State Hospital from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. and at Red Cross headquarters, 404 Market st., 10:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Straying Standfast Is Stopped

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Just when you think you've heard everything, up pops someone like Frederick Standfast.

Standfast was sentenced to five to ten years in Western Penitentiary Tuesday for passing 13 stolen checks.

Here's the story he told Criminal Court Judge Samuel Weiss. He said he was approached by a group of "beatnik American draft dodgers" in Paris last winter who gave him 32 checks drawn on United Air Lines. About 30 of them were made out for $475 each and two for $175.

Standfast said he was told to go to New York and wait in Jack Dempsey's Restaurant where someone would contact him, take the checks and pay him for his trouble.

He said he did as he was told, but no one showed up at the restaurant.

He came to Pittsburgh and began passing the checks by opening a bank account. Alert bank officials tripped him up when the checks began bouncing, police said.

Standfast, who gave his address as England, may not have to serve the sentence. He could be deported.

'Wrong Man' Is Escaped State Convict

WILKES-BARRE, Pa. (AP)—Wilkes-Barre police arrested a man yesterday fitting the description of an escaped prisoner they sought.

It turned out to be the wrong man—but police discovered he, too, was an escaped convict.

James E. Coleman of Renovo, who had fled the Clinton County (Pa.) jail last month, will be returned to finish a term for aggravated assault and battery, burglary, auto larceny.

Police said they were looking for an escapee from Rockview Correctional Institution at Bellefonte, Centre County, when Coleman was seized.

HOT STOVE LEAGUE

Wilcox-Allen Zipped

Ronnie Groves of Courier and Applanap hurled a shutout to lead his team to a 13-0 win over Wilcox-Allen of Sugar Grove in a County Intermediate League game played in Pittsfield last night. Groves had six strikeouts as his team posted their sixth win against three losses. Courier and Applanap failed to garner an extra base hit, but made the most of singles, walks and errors in posting the easy win. Gary Collins was the losing pitcher. He had the only extra-base hit in the game, a double.

Benson Paces Bell

John Benson swatted a grand slam home run in the last of the sixth to bring Bell Telephone from a 2-1 deficit to a 5-2 victory in a Borough Midget League game played against the National Forge at Beaty Field. Billy Post was the winning pitcher, he relieved Nick Tassone after three innings. Dave Smith was charged with the loss. Both of the hits for the losers were by Jeff Passaro, one of them was a double. Willie Leuthold, Pete Mains and Mike Plehuta cracked doubles for the winners. Bell Telephone now has a 7-2 record.

Last Inning Rally

Pace's Restaurant scored three runs in the top of the sixth inning last night to trip the Eagles 6-4 in a game played at Thomas Field. Trailing 4-3 after five, Pace's scored three in the top of the last to assure the win. Bob English was the winning pitcher. At the plate he went three-for-four. Frank Papalia was three-for-three and Bob Hamm enjoyed a perfect two-for-two night at the plate for the winners. Dave Stornier was the losing pitcher. Scott Kornreich had a two-for-three night at the plate for the Eagles.

Asphalt Rolls On

Warren Asphalt posted a 3-2 win over Northwest Savings last night in a Borough Midget League game played in Starbrick. The winners now have an 8-1 record. Jimmy Salapek was the winning pitcher though he needed relief help from Dave Freeborough in the late innings. Jim Bessey was tagged with the loss. Freeborough and Leo English had triples for the winners. Roger Smock, Keith White and Freeborough also doubled for the Asphalt. Allen Torrence tripled and Bessey doubled for the Bankers.

Boosters Booted

Miller & Baker of Clarendon lost an 8-4 decision to the Sheffield Sports Boosters last night in a County Midget League game played at Rogertown. Bill Sprandle was the winning hurler. Dean Carlson was the loser. He had a double for Miller & Baker. Dave Steffan spanked a grand slam homer to account for half the winners runs. Miles Stitzinger also homered for the losers. Heather, Studer, Sprandle and Steffan all collected doubles for the Boosters. The losers now hold a 4-2 record.

Still Unbeaten

Barrett's Garage of Russell scored their ninth win without a loss last night as they tripped the Youngville American Legion 13-4 in a County Intermediate League game played at Werner Field. Bob Passinger was the winning pitcher while Rick Simonson was charged with the loss. Allen Jones had a three-run homer for the winners. Barton Lohnes was a double and Royal Lohnes had a double for the winners. Pete Thornton had a two-for-two night for Barrett's Garage.

Segels Ripped 9-3

Warren National Bank, paced by the pitching of Jack Martin and Ken Lopez, defeated Segel and Son 9-3 in a Borough Midget League game played at Beaty Field last night. The two hurlers combined to fan 13 and yield just four hits. Three of the hits by the losers were for extra bases. Tony Pelligrino had a double and a triple and Dan Reese cracked a double for the losers. The Bankers got 14 singles off the pitching of Bruce Newman. WNB now has a 6-3 record.

Woodworkers Win

Youngville Cabinet Shop won its second game of the year against four losses last night as they clubbed Lake's Service 12-11 in a game played in the County Midget League at Division Street Field. Larry Smith bested Chuck Smith on the mound. Bob Carlett banged a triple. Art Ward a pair of doubles and Dexter See a two-bagger to account for the winners extra-base hits. The losers had the better of it in the long ball department with Benedict hitting a pair of homers, Gantz getting a triple and Freeborough, Kenley and Chuck Smith all doubling for the Lake's Service nine.

Bankers Now 8-1

Pennsylvania Bank and Trust upped their record to 8-1 in the Borough Midget League with a 13-1 victory over Warren Steel in a game played last night at Crescent Field. Carl California tossed a one-hitter and fanned 14 in pacing his team to the runaway win. Chuck Matie had the only hit, a double off California. The losing pitcher for Warren Steel was Mark Hahn. California and Tim Zdarko homered and Corry Bonning laced a triple for the winners.

Keep Slate Clean

Walker's Creamery posted their ninth win without a loss in the Borough Midget League as they trimmed New Process 7-3 in a game played last night at Mulberry Field. Glenn Belleau, with 10 strikeouts, was the winning pitcher. Bob Selan was the losing hurler. Belleau, Robbie Simonsen and Butch Wheeler all tripled for the winners. Don Trubie added a double for Walkers. Dale Huber had a double and a triple for the New Process team.

Betts Triumphs

Betts Machine scored a 14-9 win in the Borough Intermediate League over the Kiwanis last night in a game played at the West Side Field. The winners now hold a 6-2 record. Chuck Loomis was the winning hurler. The loser was Terry Ballor. Mark Salerno blasted a home run and a double for the winners. Tim Lucia and Denny Viglio cracked triples and Viglio had a double for the winners. Jim Mock paced the losers at the plate with a three-for-three night including a home run and a three-bagger. Rod Bedney doubled for the losers.

Wards Tops VFW

Montgomery Wards walloped the still-unvictorious VFW 23-11 last night in a Borough Midget League game played in North Warren. The winners are now 6-3 for the year. Ron Arzner, the winning pitcher, enjoyed a good night at the plate with a triple and two doubles. Tom Glossner had a pair of triples as did Ron Campbell. Other three-baggers for Wards were hit by Randy Zinger and Corky Fry. The winners had doubles off the bats of Larry Linman (2), Richard Jenks (3) and Jim Higgins (2). Kevin Fisher was the loser. Mike Waite had a double and a triple while Fisher and Rusty VanEpps doubled for the VFW.

Stateline 7-0

Stateline won its seventh game without a loss last night as they edged the Curtis Oilers 15-12 in a County Midget League game played at Sugar Grove. Wayne Gruber was the winner and George Wachter absorbed the loss. Stateline had doubles by Doug Audley, Les Hunzinger, Dave Bosko and Gruber. Ed Young, Jay Lindell and Wachter belted two-baggers for the losers.

Engstrom's Edged

Clark's Ford of Grand Valley scored a home field win over Engstroms Store of Youngville 4-3, last night in a County Midget League game. Punk Paden was the winning pitcher and Trask all worked for the losers. Paden had a triple and Rod McFate and Dave Taydus doubled for the winners. Stroup had a two-bagger for the losers. Both teams had seven hits. The game ended with an unassisted double-play by second baseman Dave Taydus of the Clark's Ford team.

Knights See Daylite

The Knights of Columbus rallied in the fifth inning and defeated Jamesway 7-6 in a Borough Intermediate League game played at Memorial Field last night. Craig Young got the win, but he needed relief help from Kenny Starr in the seventh inning. Steve Weidmaier was the losing pitcher. Young had a double for the Knights and Don Anderson cracked a two-bagger for the losers. The Knights of Columbus now had a 5-1 record.

Build A Victory

Beyer Construction won its fifth game of the year in nine starts last night with a 14-3 win over the American Legion in a Borough Midget League game played at Lacy Field, Dan Peterson, the winning pitcher, had 13 strikeouts. Jeff Sedon was the losing hurler. Dan Dangelo had a pair of doubles and a triple. Mike Constable had a triple while Robbie Shine, Dave Tannier and Pat Walters cracked doubles for the winners. Ed Reese had the only extra base hit for the Legion, a double.

ACTION AT THE STADIUM

Members of the New York Yankees and Boston Red Sox mix it up in a free-swinging brawl during Wednesday night's game at Yankee Stadium. Both benches emptied after an exchange of beanballs and it took the umpires and stadium police five minutes to restore order. Identifiable are Yankees Fred Talbot (22), Bill Robinson (11), Elston Howard (facing camera) and Mike Hegan (34). Joe Pepitone was the only player injured in the melee.

Mets Drop Rec Game To Icemen

City Ice & Beverage, currently the hottest team in the Recreation Softball League, moved into a tie for second place with Mineral Well last night by whipping the Mets, 6-3.

In other games, Twin Drive in extended their loop lead by whipping Towne & Country, 6-2 and Sparkle Car Wash handed Surf Club their eighth defeat, 6-2.

The contest at Memorial Field saw City Ice collect 13 hits off losing Met hurler Herb Bouquin as the Icemen took an early lead and were never headed. Both teams are now 6-4, a game and a half off the pace set by Twin Drive in 9-2.

Veteran Rex Graham turned in another clutch pitching performance for City Ice, scattering seven hits. Bill Dudnick's double was Mineral Well's only extra-base blow. Tony Mihalko had a three-for-three night to pace the Icemen at the plate. Craig Briggs ripped a triple and Larry Campbell, Tony Valava and Ed Cummings all contributed two-baggers.

At the Westend Field, Twin Drive in scored all their runs in the third frame after being behind 1-0 and Jack Colvin made it stand up as he twirled fourth ball at T&C.

Tom Tome and Harry Gnage doubled to spark T&C's attack. Dale Swanson spanked a triple for the Nitelubbers. Jim Otergard was the losing hurler.

Mark Bevevino twirled shutout ball until the sixth as Sparkle Car Wash dumped the Surfers at Wilder Field. Salling along with a 6-0 advantage, Bevevino gave up single runs in both the sixth and seventh frames. He was tagged for only six hits, including a homer by Ken Buchanan.

Ken Mignogna was the big man with the stick for Sparkle, going three-for-four, including a triple. Frank Suppa also blasted a three-bagger and both Bevevino and Bob Reese hit two-baggers.

Linescores were as follows:

City Ice	0 12 10 2 0	6 13
Mets	0 0 0 2 1 0	3 7
Twin	0 0 6 0 0 0	6 6
T&C	0 1 0 1 0 0	2 4

Beverage Plays Key League Game Tonite

The Warren Beverage Baseball Club faces its sternest test of the season tonight when it meets Ferraro Ford in a Glenwood League Contest at 6 p.m. at Erie's Bayview Field. The Beveragemen have been riding high in the loop during the whole first half, but the Fordmen have steadily cut the one-half game behind. Beverage has won eight games against two losses, one to Ferraro and the other to Security-Peoples, and the Girard-based team is 3-3.

In three meetings, Beverage and Ferraro split a Memorial Day doubleheader, then the local club took a game at Bayview two weeks ago.

If the Beveragemen win tonight, they would almost clinch the first half crown. They finish their slate against the two weakest teams in the circuit, Bihler Tires and Koehler Beer, and should have no trouble with either.

A loss tonight, however, would drop Beverage into second place and they would be fortunate to finish in a tie with the Fordmen for the first half crown, a condition requiring that the locals win the rest of their games.

Auto Clinic remains at the top of the league with a 7-0 record while the Beveragemen trail them with an 8-1 mark. The two will square off in a doubleheader Monday night.

In the first game the Auto Clinic scored a run in the third inning to take a 1-0 lead. They scored on a single by Mike Mohney, a sacrifice and a passed ball and a sacrifice fly by pitcher Ken Sorensen.

Betts bounced back to tie the game in the top of the fourth. Ken Hoffman singled after two were out. Danny Suppa singled and the ball was booted in the infield and permitted Hoffman to score the tying run.

Neither team threatened until the eighth. Betts got a double off the bat of Al Brown with one out. They couldn't score.

The Sons of Italy struck back in the top of the third against Dean Stewart. Joe Tassone led off with a single and scored on a triple by Jim Falvo. Bob Lucia cracked an RBI single. He scored following an error and an infield out. The rally tied the score at 3-3.

Jack Karkosky led off the bottom of the third for Beverage with a bunt single. Bill Massa, attempting to sacrifice, also got a bunt single as the SOI infield failed to cover first base. Don Mohney was given an intentional pass. With the bases loaded and none out Bob Winterburn picked an out to pitch to his liking and walloped it far over the fence in left.

Beverage went down peacefully after the home run. The Sons got a run back in the top of the fifth. Falvo led off with a double, advanced on a wild pitch and scored on an infield out hit by Dick Whiting.

In the sixth SOI scored a gap to 7-5 as they scored a run on a walk to Tony Valava, a single by John Tassone and another hit by Ralph Lee.

Sons had runners on in the seventh but Dean Stewart set them down without scoring. Pitching records for the night show Sorensen, the first game winner with four strikeouts and no walks. Berdine, loser in the opener, fanned three and walked none.

Beveragemen Dean Stewart picked up three whiffs, he walked a similar number. SOI hurler Lee fanned no one and walked two.

First flight—1. Ross Fisher (35), 2. tie, Emmy Morrison and Pete Juliano (38's); special event—Heggie Schmidt and John Carter (15's).

Second flight—1. tie, Lloyd Cleveland, Jim Barone and Elmer Lundahl (43's); special event—Howard Colt (11).

Third flight—1. Bill Lundahl (39), 2. tie, Bill Walker, Tom Atwell and Chet Christensen (44's); special event—John Haggerty (10).

Fourth flight—1. Dr. O'Connor (41), 2. Tom Kay (42); special event—Don Dairymple (11).

Fifth flight—1. Joe Gobliger (44), 2. Rip Burgett (46); special event—Tony Lucia (6). Kickers—George Kastrell, Lloyd Cleveland, Tom Atwell, John Haggerty, Bob Sokolski, Bill Hill and Rocky O'Shell (37's).

City Loop Leaders Win, Showdown Set

A pair of thrillers highlighted the City Softball League action at Carbon Memorial Field last night.

In the opener, a three-run homer by Ray Peterson in the 10th inning gave the Auto Clinic their seventh win without a loss as they defeated Betts 4-2. Warren Beverage needed a grand slam home run by Bob Winterburn to give them a 7-5 win over the Sons of Italy.

Auto Clinic remains at the top of the league with a 7-0 record while the Beveragemen trail them with an 8-1 mark. The two will square off in a doubleheader Monday night.

MAJOR LEAGUE ROUNDUP:

Braves Sweep of Giants Sparked by Aaron Homer

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Hank Aaron's two-run homer in the eighth inning of the nightcap and run-scoring double in the opener helped Atlanta to a doubleheader sweepover San Francisco yesterday, the Braves winning 2-1 and 6-4.

With the score tied 4-4 in the second game Aaron hit his 18th homer of the season, scoring behind Tito Francona who had forced Felipe Alou on base with a walk. Frank Linzy, 3-4, was the victim in relief while Brave reliever Claude Raymond, 2-5, took the victory.

The Giants had tied the game in the seventh inning on Ollie Brown's run-scoring double, his second run batted in of the game. Then after Jack Hlatk walked, Willie Mays pinch hit and grounded into a double play.

The Braves scored on Mack Jones' two-run homer in the fourth inning, Tony Cloninger's double in the fifth and Clete Boyer's infield hit in the sixth.

after Aaron had walked and stolen second. Jim Hart drove in a run for the Giants with a single in the third.

In the opener, Phil Niekro, 3-3, held the Giants to six hits, one of them Mays' 10th homer of the season and the 552nd of his career.

Doubles by Aaron in the third and Woody Woodward in the fourth provided the Atlanta margin as Gaylor Perry, 5-8, took the defeat despite striking out 10 batters and allowing just six hits.

McGlothin, 7-1, struck out six and walked three while giving up only singles to Max Alvis and Joe Azcue in the fifth and sixth.

Werhas' homer — his second — came in the second when he smacked the ball over the left field fence to score behind Bubba Morton, who walked, Schaal's third homer came in the fifth.

Two more runs scored in the eighth when Bob Rodgers doubled over Max Alvis' head to score Morton, who walked, and Jay Johnstone, who bunted, reached home on a wild pitch.

In the ninth they scored two more on a run-scoring single by Woody Held and Morton's infield out. Sam McDowell, who struck out nine, was tagged for his sixth loss of the season, against three victories.

Tigers-Twins
DETROIT (AP) — Al Kaline drove in three runs with a pair of homers and right-hander Joe Sparma set down the Minnesota

Twins on four hits as the Detroit Tigers won their third straight game 5-2 yesterday.

Kaline hit his 14th homer with Norm Cash aboard off Twins starter Jim Kaat in the first. His 15th homer followed a two-run shot by Cash in the third. All three blasts came off Kaat, whose record now is 4-8.

Sparma, 7-1, who gave up a run in the third on a walk to Jerry Zimmerman and Kaat's double, was aided by two doubleplays.

The Twins picked up another run in the seventh on a walk, Sandy Valdespino's single and a sacrifice fly by Zoilo Versalles, the victory moved Detroit to within three games of the idle Chicago White Sox in the American League pennant race.

Chiefs Meet Bears, Rams In Pro Grid Exhibitions

NEW YORK (AP) — Green Bay will pass up American Football League competition in the 16-game pre-season schedule announced yesterday by the two pro leagues but the Kansas City Chiefs, the Packers, beaten foes in the Super Bowl, will play two National Football League teams before the season.

Coch Hank Stram's Chiefs, the defending AFL champions, will play the Chicago Bears at home Aug. 23 and will invade Los Angeles to play the Rams Sept. 1 in important tests of strength between the two leagues.

Green Bay, New York, Cleveland and St. Louis were unable to fit AFL teams into their pre-season schedules this year but each AFL team will play at least one NFL rival.

Under the terms of the merger agreement, each AFL team was guaranteed at least one pre-season game with an NFL rival in 1967. They expect to play regular season games in 1970.

The Detroit Lions will play three AFL teams—at Denver Aug. 5, Buffalo at Detroit Aug. 14, and at San Diego Aug. 20 in the dedication of the Chargers' new stadium.

Philadelphia will play the New York Jets at Cincinnati Aug. 19 and will meet the Bills at Buffalo Aug. 25. In addition to Kansas City, Los Angeles will play at San Diego Aug. 27.

San Francisco and Oakland, two bitter rivals in the days of feuding between the leagues, will play Sept. 3 at Oakland, a game for which the site was determined by the flip of a coin.

One of the highlights of the NFL's record 51-game pre-season schedule will be a Green Bay-Dallas rematch in the Cotton Bowl, Aug. 26. It will be the only meeting of the 1966 title opponents unless they meet in the 1967 playoffs. The Packers will play the College All-Stars at Chicago, Aug. 4.

The AFL will play a total of 29 pre-season games.

The pre-season schedule opens with Miami at Denver July 29 in the AFL and runs through Sept. 10 with Cleveland at Minnesota in the NFL.

The AFL regular season opens Sunday, Sept. 3 and the NFL opens Sept. 17.

THREE DEADLOCKED ONE STROKE BEHIND

Unheralded Wayne Yates Leading Cleveland Open

By HAL PARIS

AP Sports Writer

CLEVELAND (AP) — Rangy Wayne Yates, an unheralded pro from Atlanta, shot a solid four-under 34-32—66 yesterday and stormed into the first-round lead of the $103,500 Cleveland Open Golf Tournament.

The 25-year-old Yates, just into his second year as a tour regular, held a one-stroke advantage over Arnold Palmer, veteran Dan Sikes and youthful Dick Lotz.

The 6-foot-2, 155-pound Yates, whose best finish this year was a tie for 11th in the Memphis Open, collected six birdies in his second best round of the tour.

He stumbled on No. 2 when his second shot landed in a bunker and on No. 12 when he missed a four-foot putt. Those two bogeys cost Yates a shot at the Aurora Country Club course record of 65.

Veteran Dow Finsterwald, the former Athens, Ohio, player who won the PGA in 1958, made the best run at the leader. He was four-under going into the final two holes on the 6,111-yard layout where par is 70 but suffered bogeys on both holes and closed with a 68.

Palmer, the millionaire golfer who finished second last week in the U.S. Open, played methodically with 15 pars and three birds.

"I was never in trouble," Palmer said afterwards, predicting that someone would shoot 65 or better before the week was over.

Lotz, also in his second year in the tour, fashioned nines of 32-35. His only mistake came at No. 10 when he buried his second shot in a bunker.

Sikes, who won this event in 1957, said later he putted beautifully. Also carded three birds and 15 pars.

Bracketed at 68 along with Finsterwald were Bob Stanton, Lionel Hebert, Raymond Floyd, Gardner Dickinson, Bob Charles and Ken Venturi.

Newly crowned U.S. open king Jack Nicklaus, who said it was hard for him to play on a wet course, performed excellently. All night rains delayed the start of action one hour and made the course soggy despite a strong sun that broke through the skies by noon.

Nicklaus, whose card showed five bogeys and three birds, finished two-over par with a 36-36—72.

Defending champion R. H. Sikes was well back in the field of 143 with a 36-36—72.

Cay Brewer, the Masters champion, posted a 69 and Billy Casper came home with an even par 70.

Julius Boros, the second leading money winner on the tour and winner of three tournaments this year, scored a 74 after taking a triple bogey 7 on the 440-yard No. 15.

Dick McGuire High On Knicks' Frazier

By MURRAY ROSE

AP Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — "We've got the best player in college ball last year," said Coach Dick McGuire happily yesterday when Walt Frazier of Southern Illinois signed to play with the New York Knicks of the National Basketball Association.

"Frazier and Bill Bradley will keep the front guys happy," said McGuire. "They'll hit the free man."

McGuire is a man of very few words. To say as many as he did about Frazier indicates how highly he regards the Little All-America and spark of the national small college champion Salukis.

Frazier came to Madison Square Garden for the signing ceremony. While General Manager Ed Donovan did not disclose contract terms, it was believed the 22-year-old, 6-foot-4 guard signed a three-year pact calling for a total of about $90,000.

Bradley, a Princeton All-America and Rhodes Scholar, was signed recently by the Knicks for an estimated $500,000 for four years.

For years the Knicks have been looking for a take-charge guy. Now they appear to have two in the 6-foot-5 Bradley and Frazier. The Knicks got a good look at Frazier last March when he led the Salukis to the NIT title and was named the Most Valuable Player.

Frazier said he was offered more money by the Denver team in the rival American Basketball Association.

"But I picked the Knicks because of the stability of the NBA, because they have better players and because I want to play in New York," said Frazier.

A fine playmaker, shot and guard, Frazier averaged 18.2 points and 11.9 rebounds a game last year.

He has another year of college eligibility but was available for the draft because his class has graduated.

He said he might have played another year of college ball but was afraid that if he did that he wouldn't have been able to play for New York. Under NBA rules, if he had played another year with Southern Illinois he would have been put back into the draft pool next year.

With Frazier and Bradley set for the backcourt, McGuire said Cazzie Russell, the former Michigan All America, and Dick Van Arsdale, probably will work full time as forwards.

The Knicks also have Dick Barnett, 6-4; Howie Komives, 6-1, and Emmette Bryant in the backcourt.

"We feel we've got a load of talent now," said McGuire. "We'll be able to press the other teams more."

Aussie Boat Confident In Cup Race

HONOLULU (AP) — The skipper of Australia's Dame Pattie isn't making any firm predictions about the outcome of this year's America's Cup yacht race. But he has hopes.

Jock Sturrock expressed an air of confidence yesterday while discussing the race coming up in September off Newport, R.I.

The 52-year-old Sturrock and several of his crew members are resting in Honolulu en route to the East Coast.

"The Dame Pattie is a very, very fast boat," the skipper said "and I think we have a very good chance to win."

Sturrock skippered the Gretel in 1962 when Australia made its first challenge for the Cup. The weatherly defeated Gretel, four races to one, but Sturrock went home with the distinction of being the first skipper to gain even one victory over the champion since 1934.

Sturrock's hopes of a victory this year are based on the 1962 showing. Gretel beat Weatherly by 47 seconds in the second race and lost the four by 26 seconds.

"Gretel was a good boat in 1962," Sturrock said, "and she has been improved tremendously since then, remodeled three times. But in the Australia trials Dame Pattie beat her 11 times in 13 races so I have to feel the Dame is a much stronger contender than we had in 1962."

"We wouldn't be getting all the way back to the United States East Coast if we didn't feel we had a pretty good chance of becoming the first country to take the cup away from the United States."

'Small' Tourney Crown Copped By Yank Cagers

BARCELONA, Spain (AP) — The United States defeated Spain 76-68 yesterday and won a five-nation basketball tournament for small players.

The height limit was 1.80 meters (5-foot, 10 3/4).

In an earlier game the Philippines beat France, 85-66, before 6,000 in the Sports Palace.

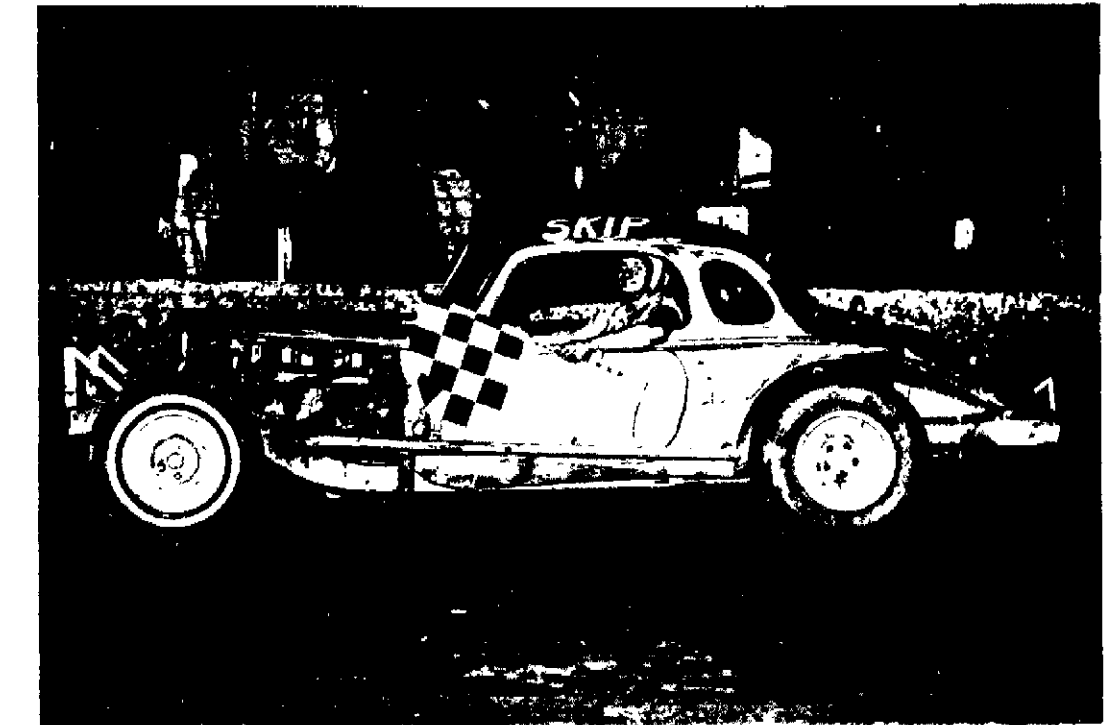

Spain took second followed by the Philippines, France and Brazil.

The Spanish players gave the Americans a stiff battle. Spain led 36-35 at halftime. The Americans pulled in front 51-50 with 10 minutes to go and then gradually increased their lead.

Mike Carson, 5-8, San Francisco State, topped the scorers with 19 points. Bill Suter, 5-8, Gonzaga, and Henry Logan, 5-10, Western Carolina, got 16 each.

Chicago Bulls Are Moving to Stadium

CHICAGO (AP) — Dick Klein, owner-manager of the Chicago Bulls of the National Basketball Association, announced yesterday that the Bulls have signed a three-year contract to make the Chicago Stadium their home.

Foyt Voted Top Athlete Honors

NEW YORK (AP) — A.J. Foyt, winner of the Indianapolis 500 in record time, won the May award in the annual S. Rae Hickok Professional Athlete of the Year poll.

Foyt was an easy winner in the monthly vote of sports writers and sportscasters, announced yesterday.

Foyt received 56 first and 215 points in the voting on a 3-2-1 basis. Dean Chance of the Minnesota Twins was second. The other leaders were in order, Jockey Bobby Ussery, outfielder Robert Clemente of Pittsburgh and light heavyweight boxing champion Dick Tiger.

Korean Fighter Agrees to Bout

SEOUL, South Korea (AP)—Kim Ki-Soo, the world junior middleweight boxing champion, said yesterday he has advised the World Boxing Association that he is willing to defend his title against Freddie Little of Las Vegas, Nev.

Kim said he has cabled this information to Emile Bruneau of New Orleans, the chairman of the WBA's championship committee. The fighter and his handlers said a defense against Italy's Sandro Mazzinghi for Milan, July 7, was off.

The WBA has warned Kim that he first must meet Little, the No. 1 contender.

Dale Lounsbury, Director of Education, American Cancer Society.

No Mini-Pearls

TOKYO (AP) — The way Japanese pearl exporters figure it, the miniskirt is largely to blame for a 21.2 per cent drop in their business for the year ended May 31. The Pearl Culture Industry Association contends that when the skirt rises so does the neckline, and the high neck garment does not set off a necklace as bare flesh does.

ship, leadership, and career opportunities. Delegates each attended three special interest meetings on various aspects of these topics.

4-H Vespers Service Slated

Forest County 4-H Club members invite the public to attend their Vespers Service on Sunday evening, June 25, at 8 p.m., near the concession building at Tionesta Dam.

The Reverend Fred W. Dover, spike, Lickingville, will deliver the sermon. Several 4-H members will participate in the program. To emphasize "Heart H", the theme "Christ As A Good Citizen" was selected. Members of the committee are: Sandra Mealy (chairman), Mike Adams, Judy Cross, Rachel Hall, Dean McPail, and Sharon Johnson.

There will be a few chairs available, but most people should bring "sit-ons". In the event of rain, the service will be held in Tionesta Presbyterian Church.

Three County High Schools Have Classes This Summer

By ELAINE RHODES

Three county high schools are operating summer school programs this year.

Eisenhower High School is again participating, Warren Area High School is offering its 13th year of summer sessions, and Youngsville High School is in its first year of experimentation with a summer education program.

Joseph Passaro, principal of Warren Area High School, outlined their summer school as having three levels: remedial, or "make-up" sessions for failing students; enrichment, for students wishing to take extra courses and thus allow more time for electives in their regular schedule; and acceleration, designed to let students earn credits for next year. There is also a Band School scheduled to begin shortly.

Growing from an enrollment of 30 students in its first year, this year's summer school has approximately 825 students participating.

"Make-up" sessions offered are: English-10th and 11th grades, World history and American history, algebra I and II, and a general math course.

Enrichment courses include eight sections of health, three sections of driver training, and three sections of typing. An advanced reading course is also available for college-bound students.

Accelerated courses are comprised of integrated trigonometry and algebra, chemistry, unified geometry, Problems of Democracy, and algebra II.

All courses last for six weeks. Because of the concentrated nature of the courses, absences can be permitted only with a doctor's excuse or in the case of a death in the student's family.

The program at Youngsville High School is in its first year. According to Felix Matthews, principal of Youngsville High School, it is at this point mainly a remedial program, with the exception of driver training and typing courses. Remedial offerings include two sections of English, one for junior high and one for senior high; algebra I and II; and social studies, both junior and senior high levels. A science course was to have been offered but response did not warrant it. Full-time library services and part-time guidance services are available.

In addition to those participating in the regular courses, 80 students are signed up for summer band sessions. Matthews said he was pleased with the response given this first program and he feels it will be expanded in future years.

John Neese, assistant principal at Eisenhower High School, said their summer program is carried out in two daily sessions. The first, from 8:15 to 10:45 a.m., offers a junior high level reading course and history course; a senior high level English course, science course, algebra I and driver training. A college preparatory English course is also included. The later session, lasting from 10:45 a.m. to 1:15 p.m., has a junior high English course, a senior high history course, a junior high math course and algebra II.

Road construction on Route 957 in the area has hampered the Eisenhower summer school somewhat this year, but Neese said it is still most successful.

Servicemen Assured of Doe Tags

HARRISBURG (AP)—Servicemen are assured of licenses to hunt antlerless deer, regardless of quotas, under new legislation signed into law yesterday by Gov. Shafer.

The governor signed four bills all relating to the state game and fish laws.

Under present law, each county may issue a certain number of licenses and may not exceed the quota. The new law exempts servicemen from the quota, although they still would have to purchase a license.

Another bill eliminates statutory shooting hours for hunting and authorizes the Game Commission to fix the hours through regulation. Thus, in summer months, the hours may be extended to take advantage of increased daylight.

The remaining measures would authorize the Game Commission to permit hunters to camp overnight on game lands and raise from 12 to 18 inches the minimum length of striped bass or rockfish sold in the commonwealth.

The Tournament of Roses was originally known as "The Battle of the Flowers." It was held Jan. 1, 1890, at Pasadena, Calif.

FOR SUMMER COURSES

Edinboro Local Campus Registration Is Monday

Registration for admission to the summer session of Edinboro State College, Warren Campus, will be held at the Warren Campus building on Monday.

A program of seven courses is being offered. The courses hours and room assignments are as follows:

English, I, R.E. Andersen, instructor; 5:30 - 7 p.m. room 6.
American Literature, R. E. Andersen, 7:30-9 p.m., room 6.
Fundamentals of Speech, F. R. Johnson, 9-10:30 a.m., room 7.
History, U.S. and Penna. II, R.E. Brant, 5:30 - 7 p.m. room 8.

American Government, R. E. Brant, 7:30-9 p.m., room 8.
College Algebra, E. M. Williams, 5:30-7 p.m. room 4.
Basic Biology, E.M. Williams, 7:30-9 p.m. room 4.

Students who are eligible to take the courses are: (1) Regularly enrolled students at Edinboro; (2) Newly-accepted students who expect to begin their courses in September; (3) Persons who wish to take courses for personal or professional improvement; (4) High school students who have the approval of their principal to take college work. The maximum number of hours for which a student may enroll for the summer program is six semester hours.

A person wishing to be admitted to Edinboro State College, Warren Campus, as a degree candidate, or as a special student, must satisfy admission requirements. Students desiring to register for the first time at the College are required to present one of the following:

A. An official letter of acceptance to Edinboro State College, Warren Campus for regular students or special students.

B. An official transcript of record from an accredited college or an official document indicating graduation from a college or university.

C. A certificate valid for teaching in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

D. An official letter from the dean of the college where the student has matriculated, or has been accepted for entry, approving the courses to be taken at Edinboro State College.

E. An official letter from the High School Principal or Guidance Counsellor for approved college work.

Further information may be obtained by calling 726-0291.

Erie Man Pleads Not Guilty

ERIE — Alois A. Tyczkowski, 31, of 608 E. 19th st., pleaded innocent to police charges of pointing a deadly weapon and assault with intent to maim for allegedly shooting a Cleveland, Ohio "go-go-girl" in a hotel here Wednesday.

He was arraigned before Alderman Samuel U. Rossiter.

The girl, Sylvia Belz, of Cleveland, spent eight hours in surgery at Hamot Hospital and later was listed in satisfactory but guarded condition.

Tyczkowski was committed to Erie County jail in lieu of $2,000 bond and will face a hearing June 29. He was found in the wounded girl's room at the Richford Hotel, refused to talk and requested a public defender.

Det. Capt. Raymond Lapenz said his investigation indicated Tyczkowski had been dating the girl since Memorial Day and shot her in a fit of jealousy. Two rifles were found in the girl's hotel room.

Commissioners Review Insurance

The Warren County Commissioners yesterday agreed to advertise for bids to increase their general liability insurance to a more realistic figure.

The present policy with Nationwide Insurance Co., which expires July 10, which has been carried for six years, provides $25,000 on one individual and $50,000 for more than one. The commissioners will seek to increase the amounts to $100,000 and $300,000 and will also add additional coverage on property damage.

Bids will be opened at 2 p.m.,

Weather Causes Pair of Accidents

Wet pavements contributed to two traffic accidents investigated by state police of the Warren substation Wednesday evening.

Trooper Martin L. Kloock,

Monday, July 10.

A motion by Blain M. Mead to allow a small office place in the court house for Ralph Brasington, newly appointed state income tax appraiser, died for lack of a second. Mead noted that space is provided in other counties.

Lewis L. Crippen refused to sanction Mead's motion in that a request for office space to house the Economic Opportunity Council was turned down.

A petition from Sheffield residents for a special voter registration day on July 21 was honored and hours set for 1-8 p.m.

who was on the scene for both mishaps, said that at 7:55 on Route 62 in Pine Grove township, a car driven by Theron T. Derby Jr., Ashville, N.Y., skidded on the highway and struck the tire on a tractor trailer.

According to police, the northbound Derby vehicle, spun around and hit a guard rail. There were no injuries and total damage was listed at $600.

A 42-year-old Fairview, Pa., woman suffered minor cuts and bruises in a 5:35 p.m. accident Wednesday, also on Route 62 in Pine Grove township.

Trooper Kloock said a car driven by Margaret A. Wykoff, of Fairview, skidded and hit a guard rail, spun around and hit the rail a second time.

Damage was listed at $1,000.

Wanderings

by Marion Honhart

THE TRAVEL STORY FOR TODAY concerns an exciting journey about to begin for three Warren Area High School students, Mary Sandblade, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sandblade, 15 Brook street, Kathy Fritz, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Karl J. Fritz Jr. of 7 Ditmar street, North Warren, and, Khlare McDonald, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Khlare E. McDonald of 202 Redwood street. On Sunday night at ten o'clock the three will leave Kennedy Airport, New York City, via Air Jet France for Guildford, England, to begin a concert tour as members of the School Orchestra of America. The group of travelers will number about one hundred, comprising coaches, chaperones and the personnel of the orchestra itself — Mary, a cellist will be a senior this fall; Kathy, a violinist, also will begin her senior year at WAHS; and Khlare, a cellist, graduated this June — Before once again seeing the skyline of New York City on July 25th and greeting their families, their travels will have taken them to London, The Netherlands, Belgium, Germany, France, Switzerland, Austria, Yugoslavia, Italy, and Monaco. Among the many who will be at Kennedy Airport on Sunday night to wave goodbye and wish the entire group a good and a safe journey will be Mrs. Sandblade and daughter, Chris, Dr. and Mrs. Fritz, Dr. and Mrs. McDonald.

WEDDING BELLS WILL RING ON AUGUST 5TH for Della Stiles of Nicktown, Penna., and James Holcomb of Warren. The announcement of their engagement and approaching marriage has been made by Mrs. Arveda Stiles of Nicktown, mother of the bride-to-be. The prospective bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Holcomb of Warren. Miss Stiles, a graduate of Central Cambria High School, Ebensburg, is employed at the New Process Company. Mr. Holcomb, a graduate of Warren Area High School, is with Thomas Coupling Division of Rex Chainbelt.

LEAVING ON JULY 1ST FOR ALASKA Mrs. Linda H. Van Tassel will be honored this Sunday at a reception from 9:45 a.m. to 11 a.m. in Dunham Parlors of First Methodist Church. Mrs. Van Tassel, director of Christian Education at First Methodist for the past ten months, is to join her husband, Michael, who since January has been stationed in Anchorage as a member of the U.S. Army. The Van Tassels expect to be there for the next two and a half years.

LATER THIS MONTH another European traveler will be Eric Sandblade, the oldest of the Robert Sandblade's children. Eric will fly over in a N.E.A. chartered plane on June 30th, but once there will tour on his own, going wherever his interests take him. He will return to this country around the middle of August. Mr. Sandblade is employed as an Industrial Arts teacher in the Fort Wayne, Indiana, school system.

MINIATURES Sheffield High School Class of 1937 is holding its class reunion tomorrow evening at 7 o'clock in Jackson Valley Country Club.

The winner of the Warren Area League playhouse, tool house, or gardening house, was won last Saturday by Miss Cathy Lewis, 18, of 106 Conewango ave., daughter of Bob Lewis of Lewis Market. Miss Lewis has had several offers for the attractive house, but wants to keep it herself.

Ann Landers

Answers Your Problems

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I am writing about the 19-year-old girl who couldn't bring herself to have a physical examination by a male doctor.

We are two 26-year-old girls who have the same problem and we do not feel that we need psychiatric help, as you suggested. We discussed this with our own physician and he says it is perfectly normal for a young woman to be a little frightened and embarrassed under these circumstances.

Generally your advice is good, but we think you are way off the beam this time. Let's hear more from you again—after you have discussed this with YOUR physician.—EMBARRASSED AND SANE FROM BILLINGS

DEAR E AND S: It is indeed perfectly normal for a young woman to be a little frightened and embarrassed under the conditions described, but the girl who wrote was more than a little frightened and embarrassed. She was experiencing severe anxiety symptoms, feelings of depression and guilt, and becoming incapacitated. For six months she had been manufacturing excuses for not taking a job because she was afraid to be examined by a company physician and would not go to her own physician. Got it straight now, girls?

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I think you could have said a lot more in support of the man who complained about the neighbor's dog who consistently messed up their lawn, shrubs and driveway. From your short, snappy answer, it's obvious that you live in an apartment and have no lawn or driveway worries.

I am a home owner who has had to put up with plenty. Our neighborhood dogs have scratched our doors, barked all night, upset our trash cans, ruined our lawn, but our postman, torn my stocking, jumped on my laundry baskets, knocked our child off his tricycle and attacked our cat.

You hinted gently that dog owners should not allow their pets to run loose. Why didn't you come right out and blast these thoughtless people in the Ann Landers style we are accustomed to?—DISAPPOINTED.

DEAR DISAPPOINTED: I thought I made it plain when I said "Most cities have dog leash laws and people who love their pets obey the laws. A dog on the loose can be poisoned, stolen, hit by a car or attacked by a wild animal who is rabid."

If you can think of a better way to say it, let me know. I'm open to suggestions.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I need help with a problem I can't handle alone. Seven months ago our daughter Selma came home with her two little children. Her husband walked out and she can't even find him to prosecute for support money. She has a full-time job and pays us room and board.

Selma acts like she is a house guest. She never washes a dish or makes a bed. She goes out almost every evening and has a grand time. Selma pays very little attention to her children who are the most adorable youngsters in the world.

I would kick her out in five minutes (my husband says I should) but I know she would neglect her children and it would break my heart. Please tell me what to do.—CAN'T DECIDE.

DEAR CAN'T: You will be far happier if you kick Selma out. At least now you know your grandchildren are being cared for properly. Accept the undesirable aspects of this situation and keep the family under your roof. Good! It isn't—but it's the lesser of the two evils.

Closure of yourself on dates? What's right? What's wrong? Should you? Shouldn't you? Send for Ann Landers' booklet "Datsie, Dots and Don'ts" enclosing your request 35 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Sheffield '47 Reunion

The first reunion of the Sheffield High School Class of 1947 will be held Saturday, June 24, at St. Michael's Recreation Hall, Beechick Road, Sheffield.

Social time begins at 2 p.m. Dinner will be served at 6, a photographer will be on hand between 5 and 6 p.m.

On the committee for this gala occasion are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rice, Mrs. Herbert Powley, Jack Landers, Charles Dorries and Ray Hahn.

MRS. CUSIMANO JR.

Nuptial Vows Exchanged In Evening Church Service

Two standing baskets of flowers and candlelight formed the background for the wedding of Barbara Kay Zimmer and Angelo A. Cusimano Jr., on Saturday evening, June 17, at 7 o'clock in the First Methodist Church. The Rev. Risde read the double ring wedding rites.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar A. Zimmer of 86 Chadabon street, Celoron, New York. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Angelo A. Cusimano of Jamestown.

Escorted on the arm of her father, the bride wore a silk organza gown over tulle, styled with Alencon lace bodice, embroidered with pearls, sheath skirt, with detachable coat with lace bell sleeves and a full bouffant chapel train. Her full veil of imported silk illusion was secured by a pearl and lace cluster headpiece. She carried a bouquet of white pompons centered with an orchid corsage.

The matron of honor, Nancy Mitchell wore maize chiffon with green ribbon contrasts. Her matching floret headpiece secured a bouffant veil. She carried daisies arranged in a flowing cascade. The flower girl was Rena Baglia, niece of the bridegroom who carried a basket of daisies.

The best man was Robert Munella, ushers were Robert Baglia, brother-in-law of the groom, Russell Zimmer, brother of the bride, and Bradley Zimmer, brother of the groom.

Robinson-Karlson Nuptials Take Place In Philadelphia

Sandra Lee Robinson, daughter of Mr. Lester G. Robinson of 1969 Berkley road, Norristown, and the late Mrs. Robinson, became the bride of the Rev. Robert Alan Karlson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Melbourne Karlson of 121 Sixth ave., Warren, on Saturday, June 17. The double ring service was read by the Rev. Johan Suurkivi at 7:30 p.m. in the chapel of the Lutheran Theological Seminary, Philadelphia. He was assisted by Dr. Roland O. Hudson of Calvary Baptist Church, Norristown. The Rev. Suurkivi is from St. Mark's Temple Lutheran Church, Clifton Heights, Penna.

Wedding music was provided by Miss Charlotte Howard, organist; Edward Czewski Jr., trumpeter; and Mrs. John Flynn, soloist. Arrangements of white flowers adorned the candlelit altar.

Presented in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown styled and fashioned by herself in a slim A-line, with wrist length bell sleeves, bateau neckline, and bands of white crepe with Chantilly lace. She wore a gold crown which held her bouffant elbow length veil of silk illusion and she carried a cascade of Calla lilies. Her wedding crown was brought from Sweden by the groom's grandmother, Mrs. Charles G. Karlson of Warren.

The maid of honor was Miss Bonnie Robinson, sister of the bride, from Norristown. She was in a gown of pale yellow nylon and lace; her bouffant veil was secured by a cluster of daisies and she carried a basket of assorted summer flowers. Costumed identically was the bridesmaid, Miss Marilyn Anderson, cousin of the groom, from East Orange, N.J.

The best man was the Rev. John Pfisterer of Princeton Junction, N.J., and ushers were Gerald Geers of Audubon, Pa., and Robert Faust of East Orange, N.J.

The mother of the groom wore

A reception was held in Apple Inn, with one hundred and seventy-five in attendance. Wedding bells and a miniature bride and groom were used in decorative touches. Linda Kay Mellor, Patricia Zimmer, sister-in-law of the bride, and Major Lupus were aides at the affair.

For traveling to New Hampshire the new Mrs. Cusimano wore an ensemble of black and white with white hat and coat. Upon returning from their honeymoon the couple will reside at 298 Falconer street.

The bride is a 1961 high school graduate and is presently employed by Kenneth W. Strickler, office equipment, Jamestown. The groom, a Jamestown High graduate 1961, is employed by the Marlin Rockwell Corp., Div. TKU.

Pre-nuptial affairs were given by Mrs. Robert Baglia, Mrs. Angelo Cusimano, Mrs. Bradley Zimmer, Mrs. Russell Zimmer, Miss Linda Mellor, Mrs. William Kadd, Mrs. Nancy Mitchell. A buffet dinner was hosted by the parents of the bride at their home.

The bride holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Education from State College in Jutstown, Penna., and a Master of Education in Fine Arts from Temple University, Philadelphia. She taught junior high school art for five years at Methacton Junior-Senior High School in Fairview Village, Penna.

The groom holds a Bachelor of Arts degree from Upsala College in East Orange, N.J., and a B.D. from Lutheran Theological Seminary in Philadelphia. He has been named pastor for Augustana Lutheran Church in Meriden, Conn.

Pre-nuptial affairs were given by the teachers, associates of the bride, and by the cousins of the bride. The groom's parents were hosts for the rehearsal dinner at the Barclay Hotel in Balta C. nyd, Penna.

The Rev. and Mrs. Karlson will also be honored at a reception given by the parents of the groom in St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Warren, on Sunday afternoon, June 25.

Jo Ann Hanson Becomes Bride In Busti Church Service

Jo Ann Hanson and Earl W. Ekdahl were united in marriage in an evening service conducted at 8 o'clock, June 9, in the Busti Federated Church, Busti, N. Y., in the presence of the immediate families. Candelabra adorned the altar of the church, trimmed with white satin bows and greens. The double ring rites were read by the Rev. Keith Tennis. Wedding music was provided at the organ by Mrs. Earl Lawson.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hanson of RFD No. 4, Jamestown, N. Y., and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Ekdahl of Chancellers Valley.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a long white crepe and lace gown styled with a modified empire waistline, tapering to the natural waistline at the back defined with a soft bow, the elbow-length sleeves were edged in lace. Her ballerina length veil was attached to a crown of crepe and lace and she carried white gladioli and sweetheart roses with ivy streamers. Her jewelry was a pearl and jade necklace with matching bracelet, the gift of the groom. The gown was fashioned by the bride and her mother.

The matron of honor was Mrs. Jack Jordan in a deep aqua afternoon length dress of shantung and lace trim. A crown of matching lace held her veil. She carried a basket of yellow gladioli and ivy.

Best man was Carl Strand. The mother of the bride wore navy blue crepe with white accessories and a yellow cymbidium orchid corsage. The mother of the groom had a pale blue crepe dress with white accessories and also had a yellow cymbidium corsage.

After the wedding service, a candlelight dinner was given at Benson's Country House. Arrangements of yellow and white pompons and narcissi were used in table decoration. Mrs. Lynn Firth, sister of the groom, was an aide.

Returning from a honeymoon in Canada, Mr. and Mrs. Ekdahl are now residing at 200 1/2 North Church street, New Carlisle, Ohio. The bride was employed in accounting at Art Metal Inc., of Jamestown. The groom is employed at Wright Patterson Air Force Base, Fairborn, Ohio. He is a graduate of Penn Technical Institute of Pittsburgh and served two years with the U.S. Navy.

Pre-nuptial affairs were given by Miss Mona Anderson, Mrs. Lee Ayling, Miss Brenda Johnson, Mrs. Ruth Swanson, Mrs. Edith Blodgett, Mrs. Bonnie Firth, Mrs. Willard Ekdahl, Miss Mary Hanson. The rehearsal dinner was given by the parents of the groom at their home.

The wedding will take place in the near future.

CAROL ANN SHIRLEY
More Than 400 Attend Adventist Camp Meeting

The Seventh-day Adventist camp meeting of last weekend was attended by more than four hundred. The Friday evening program was high-lighted by Elder E. M. Peterson's talk on "Heaven."

Saturday morning, throughout the Sabbath School service, special musical selections added to the interest of the lesson. The mission story was given by Elder Keith Mundt, a native of Burma, he wore his country's costume, and discussed the customs of his people.

There were separate worship services at 11 a. m. Elder Cree Sandefur spoke to the adults about Christ's counsel to saints; while Elder E. M. Peterson captivated the hearts and minds of the young people.

Sabbath afternoon was filled with even more spiritual food. Elder E. W. Tarr talked about Jesus' coming. Elder James Ball, in charge of all music, led out in enthusiastic song services. The soul-winning trophy hour featured much Spirit-filled witnessing.

In the evening, Elder Tarr gave another interesting talk about a rendezvous with destiny. A film, "Behold the Dreamer," was shown. Afterward, everyone patronized the Book and Bible House, which had a wonderful display of recent and popular books. There was also a vast selection of delicious and nourishing vegetarian foods, which was rapidly depleted.

A New You by Emily Wilkens

The saying if you want something done, ask a busy person to do it isn't idle chatter. The busy person always seems to find time for just one more task because she's organized.

And yet, how many of us keep racing around just to stay in the same place like the disorganized Queen in Alice in Wonderland.

It's really not so difficult to make a little headway and get things done! The key is to plan your day—with an actual schedule, not a hopeful approximation. Of course, the unexpected can throw your timetable off... but if you've planned carefully, extra activity can be worked in without becoming a major crisis.

IT'S RIGHT TO WRITE

To get started on the right foot, write down the things you plan to do or must do. Don't just scribble on any pieces of paper that are handy—these have an uncanny way of getting lost. Buy an appointment book with the hours of the day printed and enough room for you to make notations.

A purse-sized book is most convenient to carry with you everywhere. Keep a large calendar near your phone and write in your "dates" as they are planned.

One wise girl keeps a blackboard near her phone. At night, she enters the notes into her appointment book and the next day simply starts off again with a clean slate. Whichever system you use, list all your appointments in one place. Then you'll know exactly where you have to be when—at a glance. This helps in another way, too, because you can tell immediately whether you're OVER-scheduled. The person who cries, "There just aren't enough hours in the day," should really be saying, "I'm trying to do too many things at once."

Pace yourself during the week so that major chores fall on different days: i.e., cleaning your room, washing your hair, etc.

BE AN EFFICIENCY EXPERT
Take the time to see where you're wasting time and you'll become an efficiency expert who can cut corners where they count. Develop an unhurried efficiency. This may sound like a riddle, but it only means moving faster at certain times so you can relax comfortably at others. Nothing spoils an evening more than a frantic date rushing around to get ready upstairs while her beau cools his heels in the living room. Social engagements should be enjoyed—you can't enjoy them if you're on a treadmill.

OBSERVE THE SPEED LIMITS
A last tip to be truly organized is to know your own limits. There's no sense (nor any future) in trying to keep up with that whiz who belongs to three school clubs, makes all her own clothes and looks calm, cool and collected. If you try to emulate her phenomenal capacity you'll be doing too many things and none of them well. Don't try to be all things to all people. When too many demands are made on you, hold up a firm hand and stop the clock.

If you exercise the control on what must be done, and organize the time to do it, THE NEW YOU will enjoy her leisure hours twice as much.

JUST FOR YOU: If you're a natural "last-minute doer," plan to do what you have to in the first part of plenty of time.

Household Hints

Drippings from a beef or veal roast, when they are not used for gravy, may be put in the freezer and used to enrich meat sauces.

Ever add shredded raw spinach to chicken broth? Don't cook the spinach in the broth; add it shortly before serving so it has a chance to stay a pretty green and only wilts.

If a recipe calls for one cup of fine cornflake crumbs, you'll need to crush four cups of cornflakes to make the required number of crumbs.

Ever cook carrots in bouillon? Add extra flavor!

For weight-watchers a d stewed tomatoes to chicken broth for a hot soup. Pass the freshly-ground pepper.

Hints From Heloise

Don't Throw Away That Ice Chest

DEAR HELOISE

Don't throw away your old plastic-foam ice chest. It makes the best sewing basket.

To make the chest more decorative I sprayed mine with gold paint.

I took the lid off a cigar box and inserted it about halfway down in the ice chest (most have a ridge just about there) to hold scissors, etc.

This chest is lightweight and roomy and if my pin cushion isn't handy I stick my needle anywhere on the "basket" instead of on the arm of the chair or couch.

I had some paint left over so I sprayed two lamp shades gold two picture frames and one large potato chip can that the girls use for a waste-basket in their bedroom. All for seventy cents!

Mrs. Rykowski

DEAR FOLKS:

Do you use the wash cloths on top of the stack each week, wash them and put them back on the top of that stack?

Then wonder why a certain wash cloth, which matches that set of pretty towels, wears out or fades before the towels do?

As a suggestion, fold the matching wash cloth inside the hand towel, then stack them up.

Here's why: The towel will be used at the same time as the wash cloth, and eventually they will all wear out at the same time.

TWO hand towels and TWO wash cloths should be bought each time you purchase a bath towel. This way they all wear out about the same time and you always have matching sets.

Heloise

DEAR HELOISE

Occasionally, I have received perfume or cologne that is not exactly what I like to use.

Now, when I wash my bathroom floor, I put a few sprinkles of the cologne in the water and the bathroom has a mild fragrance which is quite delightful.

West opened the deuce of hearts against South's four spade contract, and declarer played the ace from dummy. The queen of spades was led next, for a successful finesse. South followed up with the ten, and East ducked again. A third round of spades cleared up the trump situation.

South led a club from his hand, West followed with the eight and the ten was played from dummy. Without a sign of hesitation, East put the deuce of clubs on the trick. From South's point of view, the queen was apparently located in West's hand. He accordingly led back to the ace of diamonds to repeat the club finesse.

His plans received a severe jolt, when East topped dummy's jack of clubs with the queen. A diamond return placed considerable pressure on South. He chose to play the jack from his hand and West covered with the queen to dislodge dummy's ace. East won the club continuation with the ace, and after cashing the king of hearts, he led a diamond to his partner's ten for the setting trick.

South was the victim of his own carelessness as well as a spirit of greed. His handling of the trump suit, for example, was not well thought out. He should have arranged to win the second round of spades in his hand by leading a small spade to the nine, so that he could begin work on the club suit. This enables him to save the ace of trumps for a reentry to make a second play in clubs, without having to open up the diamond suit.

Had he coordinated his play of the spades and clubs, East's deft footwork would have gone for naught.

Declarer had it in his power to save the day even after East had permitted North's ten to win the first club trick. All South has to do is to lead a small club from the dummy at this point. East will make his two club tricks; however, North's long card in the suit will provide a parking place for South's losing diamond.

Even if West turns up with the queen of clubs, declarer can lead a club later up to dummy's king-jack in order to establish the necessary discard. The suggested play may cost an overtrick, but surely that is a negligible price to pay for assurance of the contract.

Your Horoscope

By Frances Drake

Look in the section in which your birthday comes and find what your outlook is, according to the stars.

FOR FRIDAY, JUNE 23, 1967
ARIES (March 21 to April 20) — You may tend to be too brief or too wordy. Find that happy medium through which misunderstandings are avoided and real progress will ensue. Clarify "cloudy" areas.

TAURUS (April 21 to May 21) — Do not be dismayed if things seem to get out of hand. That's when a serene, calm disposition and level-headed analysis are important. Never lose perspective, humor or compassion.

GEMINI (May 22 to June 21) — To miscalculate now could have far-reaching repercussions; to delay warranted action could set time backward. So make sure of likely results and purposes before you "turn a finger."

CANCER (June 22 to July 23) — Serious thought should be given before taking serious steps. Don't let outer brilliance or attractiveness blind you to flaws which must be eliminated for security, success.

LEO (July 24 to August 23) — Favorable solar influences! Do little things well and in timely fashion, and big ones will be less of a problem.

VIRGO (August 24 to September 23) — Reckon with the times, the variability of temperaments, and strive the harder to bring out the best in your surroundings. Dress up old ideas; revise tactics.

LIBRA (September 24 to October 23) — Rationalize, think things out with logic before making important moves. Your seeking, searching mind will permit you to see the essentials—and new opportunities.

SCORPIO (October 24 to November 22) — Competition galore! You should revel in most of the challenges offered. Some things changed? Good! Accept them for their worth; you will find it exhilarating.

SAGITTARIUS (November 23 to December 21) — Shun a tendency to side-step obligations in favor of more pleasurable activities. Set your sights high, establish your pattern early.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 20) — Be guided by logic in stress periods. Give anxiety no quarter. Be prepared to cope with some minor obstacles which may appear.

AQUARIUS (January 21 to February 19) — Experiences of the past may give you the clues to proper handling of this day's action. With proper procedure, you should do well now.

PISCES (February 20 to March 20) — Sturdy effort will do the trick on this "on-and-off" day. Mostly variable influences; some hours may be really tricky. All challenges should prove interesting, however.

YOU BORN TODAY are endowed with firmness, practicality, geniality and sociability. You love approval, do great work when you get it. However, working without it is a character-builder. You are especially adept at dealing with the public and groups; suffer in inharmonious surroundings. You delight in ceremony, old beliefs, the mysterious; are innately reserved and dignified, but you are fun, say things wittily. Birthdate of: Edward, Duke of Windsor, Irwin S. Cobb, author.

How to Keep Well By Dr. T. R. Van Dellen

BATHITECTURE

Indoor plumbing was introduced 50 years ago but the basic design of the modern bathroom remains unchanged. According to a study conducted by Alexander Kira of Cornell University, it is "as irrational a design as anything in the American way of life." He blames the plumbing industry for lack of improvements.

Wash basins are usually too small or too low; the bathtub unsafe and uncomfortable; the shower stall cramped and the toilet the most ill-sited of all. The only thing that has saved the industry is that the American public is notoriously patient with inconvenience. Prof. Kira, an architect, may be hypercritical, but he does not leave us stranded. Credit is due him for many good suggestions.

The basin should be 36 to 38 rather than 30 inches high. The source of the water should be 10 inches higher instead of slightly below the rim. A stream of water that arches up and out is a safety device, especially when shampooing the hair.

For comfort Kira suggests a longer bathtub with a contoured backrest. A seat on the opposite end provides a place for washing and also serves as a footrest at three different distances from the back for people of varying heights. Also included is a hand spray.

For the shower enthusiast, a separate stall, large enough to provide a seat and space to wash outside the adjustable spray. The toilet is designed with the seat from five to seven inches lower in order to help the user assume a more functional squat position. Narrowing the opening in the seat at the center provides better support. Washing jets that mimic a bidet in principle are included. Controls and other hardware are placed in front. Grab bars aid in getting up and down.

Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.

TOMORROW: The Brown Recluse

CACTUS ALLERGY
W. T. writes: I moved to Arizona and find I am allergic to cactus plants. Is there anything I can do other than move again?

REPLY
The question should be answered by your local physician. If you cannot avoid the plants or be desensitized against them, and if your symptoms are unbearable, you have no alternative but to leave Arizona. Your experience shows that some people jump from the frying pan into the fire.

HERNIATED PAD
B. H. writes: What is meant by a herniated fat pad in the lower back?

REPLY
In this unusual condition pieces of fat from the back herniate thru the fibrous tissues along the spine. It is caused by strain or sprain. Several treatments, including surgery are available, provided there is pain.

TICKLING AND STUTTERING
Mrs. L. R. writes: Is it true that tickling a baby's soles will make him stutter later in life?

REPLY
This statement is an oldie. Stuttering is due to an emotional disturbance and if tickling contributes to the youngster's frustrations and anxieties, a speech defect may result.

SURGICAL MENOPAUSE
E. L. F. writes: Is the menopause after a hysterectomy the same as a natural change of life?

REPLY
Yes. Our leaflet on the menopause may interest you. Send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for it.

TODAY'S HEALTH HINT—Wet floors are extremely slippery.

ANOTHER YEAR—ANOTHER CONTEST

There is always a degree of excitement among the ten or twelve active members of the Tidioute Area Chamber of Commerce when plans begin to take shape for the annual state fishing tournament held here the second weekend in October. You would expect the enthusiasm to wear off after the initial attempts, especially when only a handful of the total membership gets actively involved in the work required.

But eagerness prevails, and there is always the challenge to make the event bigger and better than the year before. I believe that conducting it completely on the local level, without the benefit of outside sponsorship where financing is concerned, tends to create a more productive atmosphere because all plans, decisions, and responsibilities are ours alone and we don't have to correlate our thinking with that of a co-sponsor.

We can stage this annual state contest on our own only if we have the financial support of area business and industry. This method of voluntary financial contributions was utilized last year and proved most successful.

A survey of donors was made after the 1966 tournament and most indicated they would contribute in the same manner this year. Personal contacts will be made in the near future to secure pledges so that a realistic budget can be settled.

Fortunately for the few active workers in the Chamber, the Tidioute Lions Club last year and again this year have assumed the responsibility for planning and staging the annual hometown parade. The Lions Club has an enviable reputation for community cooperation and success in its enterprises.

A number of other organizations and clubs conduct activities in conjunction with the tournament in order to raise funds for their particular group. The Chamber has encouraged this because it adds much to the festivity and interest of the tournament.

However, it is the tournament and the parade which attract hundreds of people to Tidioute on this weekend and offer an opportunity for their money-making ventures. And often the wares and services they sell are in direct competition with the local business places which are helping finance the tournament.

It would be grossly unfair (and in bad taste, too) to intimate that such actions are in the nature of "freeloading," but there's a simple way in which to eliminate such an implication while, at the same time, leading financial support to the main event.

This would be accomplished by pledging a percentage of the proceeds as a contribution to tournament expenses. This could be either on the gross "take" or the profits, whichever method deemed most fair to all concerned.

I believe most organizations, clubs and civic groups would be glad to carry their share and contribute to this community-sponsored event. There are many expenses and much work involved in staging this annual tournament but many hands make the task easier and those who benefit the most should be willing to share the burdens.

Recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Westfall were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Morris of Aliquippa, Pa., the Rev. Donald Strand of Kane, Edway Westfall of Warren, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hoffman of Star-bridge, Mr. Hugh Marshall and Miss Haylett of Kane.

Tidioute Makes Plans For Fishing Tournament

The 1967 Pennsylvania State Fishing Tournament will be held at Tidioute on Saturday and Sunday, October 14-15. Originated in Tidioute by the Tidioute Area Chamber of Commerce, this will mark the eighth annual contest to choose a state fishing champion from the ranks of Pennsylvania fishermen.

While the area of fishing is confined to the stretch of the Allegheny River between the Irvine and West Hickory bridges, anyone holding a Pennsylvania fishing license is eligible to compete even though he resides outside the state.

During the previous seven contests, Warren county has produced four state champions, Paul Viglo of Warren, Jack Moore of Tidioute, and George Wagner of Clarendon who won the championship in 1964 and 1965. Last year's winner, William J. Arro of Fayette City, Pa., is expected to defend his title in the 1967 tournament.

Each year the champion receives a crown, a handsome trophy, and a check from the Tidioute Area Chamber of Commerce to cover his transportation expenses to the World Series of Fresh Water Fishing where he represents the state of Pennsylvania in this international fishing tournament. His living and fishing expenses are also paid while participating in the World Series.

Other winners in the four categories (muskie, northern, walleye and bass) also receive prizes. About 28 trophies were awarded last year to these lucky fishermen.

Donald Klinefister is general chairman of this year's tournament committee. Klinefister is vice president of the Tidioute Area Chamber of Commerce and operates Klinefister's Wolf's Head Oil Station in Tidioute. In past years he has served on the tournament committee in various capacities.

Klinefister, at Tuesday night's Chamber meeting, appointed James Latimer, William Allen and Herbert Bush to the rules and regulations committee. This group will make any necessary revisions to the general rules and regulations governing the tournament and also set up the structure for the new summer fishing contest.

A finance committee also was named. Bush and Latimer will contact business places on Route 62 and adjacent areas while G. K. Lodge and Ed Shanley will have Tidioute borough as their territory. Most business places which supported the tournament last year with financial contributions indicated they would do the same for this year's event.

Lenore McIntyre, Latimer and Catherine Christy were named to the publicity committee. Committees for judges, judges' stand, referees, etc., will be appointed at next month's meeting.

The annual hometown parade always held on Saturday afternoon of the tournament weekend will be staged this year under the supervision of the Tidioute Lions Club. Other community organizations will be contacted in relation to special events and attractions which they plan to hold.

In other Chamber business Tuesday night, it was voted to make a $50 contribution to the Vets for the fireworks display on July 3.

TIDIOUTE FIREMEN will have their regular monthly meeting at the fire hall on Tuesday evening, June 27.

MARY MARTHA CLASS of First Methodist Church meets at the home of Mrs. Harold Morrison on Wednesday, June 28.

TIDIOUTE BUCKTAILS will meet Thursday, June 29, at the club's new trap range on Morris Hill at approximately 6:30 p. m. All members are urged to be present.

MOUNTAIN GRANGE meets Friday, June 23, at the grange hall for a regular session.

TIDIOUTE GARDEN CLUB will have a picnic supper at the new Tidioute Overlook on Tuesday, June 27. Co-hosts will be Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Swanson and Mrs. William Moore. Forster Larry Stotz will be the guest speaker.

CIRCLE THREE of the Methodist WSCS enjoyed a thirteen dinner recently at the home of Mrs. William McClelland. The nine members attending held an outdoors business meeting, voting to donate $35 to the parsonage carpeting fund and to clean the church kitchen in August.

An invitation was extended by Mrs. Herbert Farster to hold the September meeting at her home and the meeting adjourned with the circle prayer being recited in unison.

A son, Gerald Robert, was born to Mr. and Mrs. George Harrington on June 13 at Baptist Memorial Hospital in Jacksonville, Fla. ## ONE OF THREE IN DISTRICT

Warren County Has Home Health Medicare Center

Warren County has one of three home health agencies in the Jamestown Social Security District, district manager Lewis Epstein reported this week.

The centers, Epstein said, are one part of Medicare protection and they provide important health services for the house-confined invalid.

Medicare insurance will pay for home visits by nurses, physical therapists, health aides, and other health workers employed by the home health agency.

Payment can be made for part-time nursing care, physical therapy, some medical supplies, and use of special equipment. However, neither full-time nursing care nor general housekeeping services are covered.

The hospital insurance and the doctor bill insurance both provide for 100 visits per year by home health workers. Under the hospital insurance, the beneficiary must have been discharged from a hospital after a stay of at least three days before home visits can be authorized. Under the doctor bill plan, the beneficiary does not have to be hospitalized first to get these services. Under both plans, the doctor decides whether the beneficiary needs the services and sets up the plan.

Further information can be obtained from the Social Security representative on his visit to Warren. Hours at the National Guard Armory on Hickory street are from 9:30 to noon and 1 to 3:30 p.m. on Wednesday.

Russell Man In Vietnam For Birthday

Pfc. John Briggs, of Russell, now serving with the Free World Military Assistance Operations Office, in Saigon, South Vietnam, will be celebrating his 20th birthday July 10. John would like to hear from his friends. His address is Pfc. E3 John A. Briggs, RA 11637979, FWMAOO, APO-San Francisco, California.

John entered the service in September, 1965. Following basic training at Fort Dix, N.J., and ten weeks of intensive schooling, he was sent to South Vietnam. He arrived in Vietnam in Feb., where he serves as a clerk-typist at the FWMAOO office, in Saigon. John works 12-hours per day, seven days a week. There are eight different countries included in one large office building. Recently John had the honor of meeting General Westmoreland at this FWMAOO (Free World Military Assistance Operations Office).

Vets to Sponsor Fireworks July 3

VFW Post 8803 is sponsoring a fireworks display on Monday, July 3. The rockets and bombs and fountains of color will be set off below the Tidioute bridge shortly after dusk.

In the event of rain that evening, the display will be held the following night. According to reports, the Vets have purchased an excellent and sizable package of fireworks pieces for the observance of Independence Day. The Tidioute fire company will be in charge of setting off the display as in previous years.

An invitation was extended by Mrs. Herbert Farster to hold the September meeting at her home and the meeting adjourned with the circle prayer being recited in unison.

A son, Gerald Robert, was born to Mr. and Mrs. George Harrington on June 13 at Baptist Memorial Hospital in Jacksonville, Fla. The new arrival is the grandson of Mrs. Helen Harrington of Tidioute and the late Gerald Harrington and maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kruth of Erie, Pa. ## Stock Prices Dip As Trading Eases

(c) N.Y. Times News Service
NEW YORK—Prospects of a summit conference between President Johnson and Premier Kossygin of the Soviet Union arrested a decline in the stock market briefly yesterday. The recovery failed to hold, however, and prices trailed off again in the final hour of trading.

The Dow Jones Industrial average, down 3.76 points at 1,300 p.m., trimmed its loss to 0.81 point an hour later. But by the 3:30 p.m. close it was back to 875.69, off 1.97 points from Wednesday.

There were 688 declines against 497 advances, about the same ratio as Wednesday. New highs for the year declined to 83 from Wednesday's 96. There were 33 new lows against 41 Wednesday.

Volume on the New York Stock Exchange eased to 9.55 million shares from 9.76 million yesterday.

The New York Stock Exchange composite index declined 0.11 point to 50.92, and Standard & Poor's 500-stock index dipped 0.23 point to 91.97.

The New York Times combined average of 50 industrial and railroad stocks eased 0.44 point to 515.61.

Declines among the 15 most-active stocks on the big board outnumbered advances for the first time this week. There were nine losers against six gainers. Six of the most-active stocks posted new highs yesterday.

On the American Stock Exchange, investors continued to show interest in low-priced issues. Five of the day's ten most active stocks were priced below $10. Turnover amounted to 4,631,410 shares compared with 5,445,470 Wednesday and more than six million Tuesday. The index of stock prices rose 8 cents to $19.78.

Prices were mixed in moderate trading on the over-the-counter market.

On the big board, A.J. Industries, maker of airplane fuel tanks, jumped to the top of the list with 233,000 shares traded. It closed at a new high of 6, up 1 1/2.

International Minerals and Chemicals scored the biggest gain among the most-active stocks. It traded as high as 37 and closed at 36 1/2, up 4 points. The stock's turnover of 154,200 shares included three blocks totaling 45,000 shares.

Lykes Brothers Steamship also rose sharply to close at 32, up 3 1/2, after setting a new high at 32 1/2. Observers noted that ocean-vessel charter rates have been soaring since the closing of the Suez Canal in the Israeli-Arab war.

Control Data was the principal loser among the most-active stocks. It traded as high as 105 1/2, but closed at 102 1/2, down 2 1/2.

Martin Marietta eased 3/4 to 24 1/2 in the fourth heaviest trading of the day.

Pan American World Airways the second most-active stock, dipped 3/4 to 31. Its volume of 233,900 shares included a block of 99,500 at 31.

Bethlehem Steel's volume of 120,400 shares included a block of 94,800 shares at 33. Bethlehem closed at 33 1/4, of 1/2.

Woolworth added to its recent gains, closing at 29 1/2, up 1/4, after trading as high as 29. Continental Copper, up 2 1/4 Wednesday, moved to a new high of 33 but closed at 30 1/2 off 1/2. The Chicago & North-western denied rumors that it would make a tender offer for Continental stock.

A JAPANESE film offering the world's tiniest television set — it has a one-inch screen — sounds like an ideal gift for a friend who takes a small view of today's television fare.

It requires an average of 2½ days for a turkey egg to hatch only 21 for chicken eggs. Naturally — the drumsticks are big.

Hopi Indian males usually are adept at weaving — photographs sound like a soft life even if somewhat rugged.

Some 30,000 years ago a good part of North America lay under a layer of ice hundreds of feet thick, say geologists. That certainly makes good reading doesn't it — in this kind of weather?

An acre of sugar beets we read, will produce 17 million calories, more than four times that of any other food. How sweet that isn't for anyone trying to reduce?

Horseshoes have been in use since the second century B.C. according to an historian. Time gallops on!

Svetlana's Book will Appear in Russian

(C) N.Y. Times News Service
NEW YORK — Mrs. Svetlana Alliluyeva's memoirs of her father, Joseph Stalin, will be published in Russian by Harper & Row simultaneously with the English translation on Oct. 16.

The title of the book, in both languages, will be "Twenty Letters to a Friend, a Memoir by Svetlana Alliluyeva."

Evan Thomas, vice president of Harper & Row, said yesterday the letters were to no particular person but corresponded to the book's 20 chapters, which are written in letter form.

A Harper & Row announcement said the book will be a personal account of the tumultuous years in Moscow, ranging from the 1930's to Stalin's death in 1953.

Answers to B8 Quiz

How Good Is Your History?

(Questions on Page B-8.)

1. False. The public did not learn the actual words of the Declaration until July 8, 1776—four days after it had been signed—and therefore had to wait until July 8 to celebrate. Then, the Declaration was read to the public, the Liberty Bell rang out the news, bands played, and a public celebration took place.

2. True. Adams said this of Independence Day: "It ought to be commemorated as the day of deliverance, by solemn acts of devotion to God Almighty. It ought to be solemnized with pomp and parade, with shows, games, sports, guns, bells, bonfires, and illuminations, from one end of this continent to the other, from this time forward for evermore."

3. False. Adams and Jefferson signed the Declaration, but Washington did not.

4. True. And for that reason it is the birthday of the United States of America.

5. False. The Declaration is dated July 4, 1776, and is described as "unanimous." But the word "unanimous" could not be properly used until July 19, when the New York delegation to Congress, which had not voted on July 4, reported that it favored the Declaration.

6. True. Henry Richard Lee moved on June 7, 1776, that "These United Colonies are, and of right ought to be, free and independent States." The Continental Congress approved Lee's resolution on July 2, 1776.

7. True. The final draft of the Declaration of Independence was prepared by a committee including Benjamin Franklin, Thomas Jefferson, John Adams, Robert Livingston, and Roger Sherman, but it is believed to be largely Jefferson's work.

8. True. The English had used many of the same ideas to justify their revolution of 1688, when they ousted King James II.

9. False. The Declaration of Independence was removed to Leesburg, Virginia, as British troops approached Washington.

10. False. The Declaration of Independence was held in the Library of Congress from 1921 to 1952, but now is in the National Archives Building.

DON'T BE RIDICULOUS, GEORGE! THEY DON'T HAVE MILITARY SCHOOLS FOR FIVE YEAR OLD BOYS!

Help From 'Hams'

SIOUX FALLS, S. Dak. (AP)—A Lutheran clergyman, the Rev. R. H. Ford, who as a hobby has been an amateur radio operator for 38 years, recently picked up another "ham's" call from Riberalta, Bolivia, for aid in a medical emergency, involving a two-year-old boy on a mission post.

After recording the request, including a diagnosis and the type of medicine needed, the Rev. Mr. Ford passed it on to a physician, who contacted a Chicago drug house, which called its representative in Ecuador, who had the medicine flown to La Paz, Bolivia, and from there to the mission by private plane.

At the Playgrounds

Egg-rolling, egg-breaking, and bubble-gum blowing contests were featured as special events Wednesday at local playgrounds.

In an Egg rolling contest held at the Lacy playground winners were Katy Parsons and David Oelslager.

In egg-breaking contests held at Carbon and Beaty playground winners were Jimmie Tamason and Terry English, at Carbon and Robin Means and Jeff Johnston at Beaty.

Bubble-gum blowing contests seemed to be the most popular event with contests being held at Carbon, Beaty, Lacy, Crescent, and Memorial playgrounds.

At Carbon playground winners were: Ted Denning, Julie De Muro, and Jan Nichols. A total of 57 youngsters entered the contest.

At Beaty playground winners were: Rose Proud, Karen

Reese, in the age group 5-7; Dave Campbell and Chimenti won in the eight-year-old group; Kim Craft and Nancy Bell, in the 9-10 age group; Mike Baumgratz, in the boys age group 10-11, Paula Donovan, won in the girls 11-year old age group and Joe Gebhardt, won in the boys 12-year-old age group. A special award was given to Tad Gebhardt.

At Lacy's Bubble gum blowing contest the winners were: Gary Heller, Katy Parson, Steve Heller, and Jim Huber.

At Crescent Park the winners were Craig Thomas, Kenny Ristau, Linda Moore, Judy Bines and Brett Broffman. A total of 75 youngsters took part in the contest.

At Memorial Playground contest winners were Julie Wine-riker, Peggy Brown, Douglas McAllister and Sandra Bull. Memorial also held an egg-breaking contest with Patti Crouse and Janice Roman winning the event.

The Beech Playground also had a bubble gum blowing contest. The winners were Vicki Durante, Paul Guber, Joe Durante, Pino Fracassi. A total of 40 youngsters took part in the activities.
